

Geraldton Mayor Seeks Liberal Nomination

Michael Power, Mayor of the Town of Geraldton, has announced that he will contest the nomination in Lake Nipigon Riding of the Liberal Party of Ontario. The nomination has been scheduled for Saturday, September 29th in Red Rock. It is widely expected that a Provincial election will be held this fall.

Mayor Power, who was a candidate in the 1975 provincial election, said he was seeking the nomination because he was confident that he could provide all of the people of Lake Nipigon Riding with the services and representation that they deserve and have come to expect.

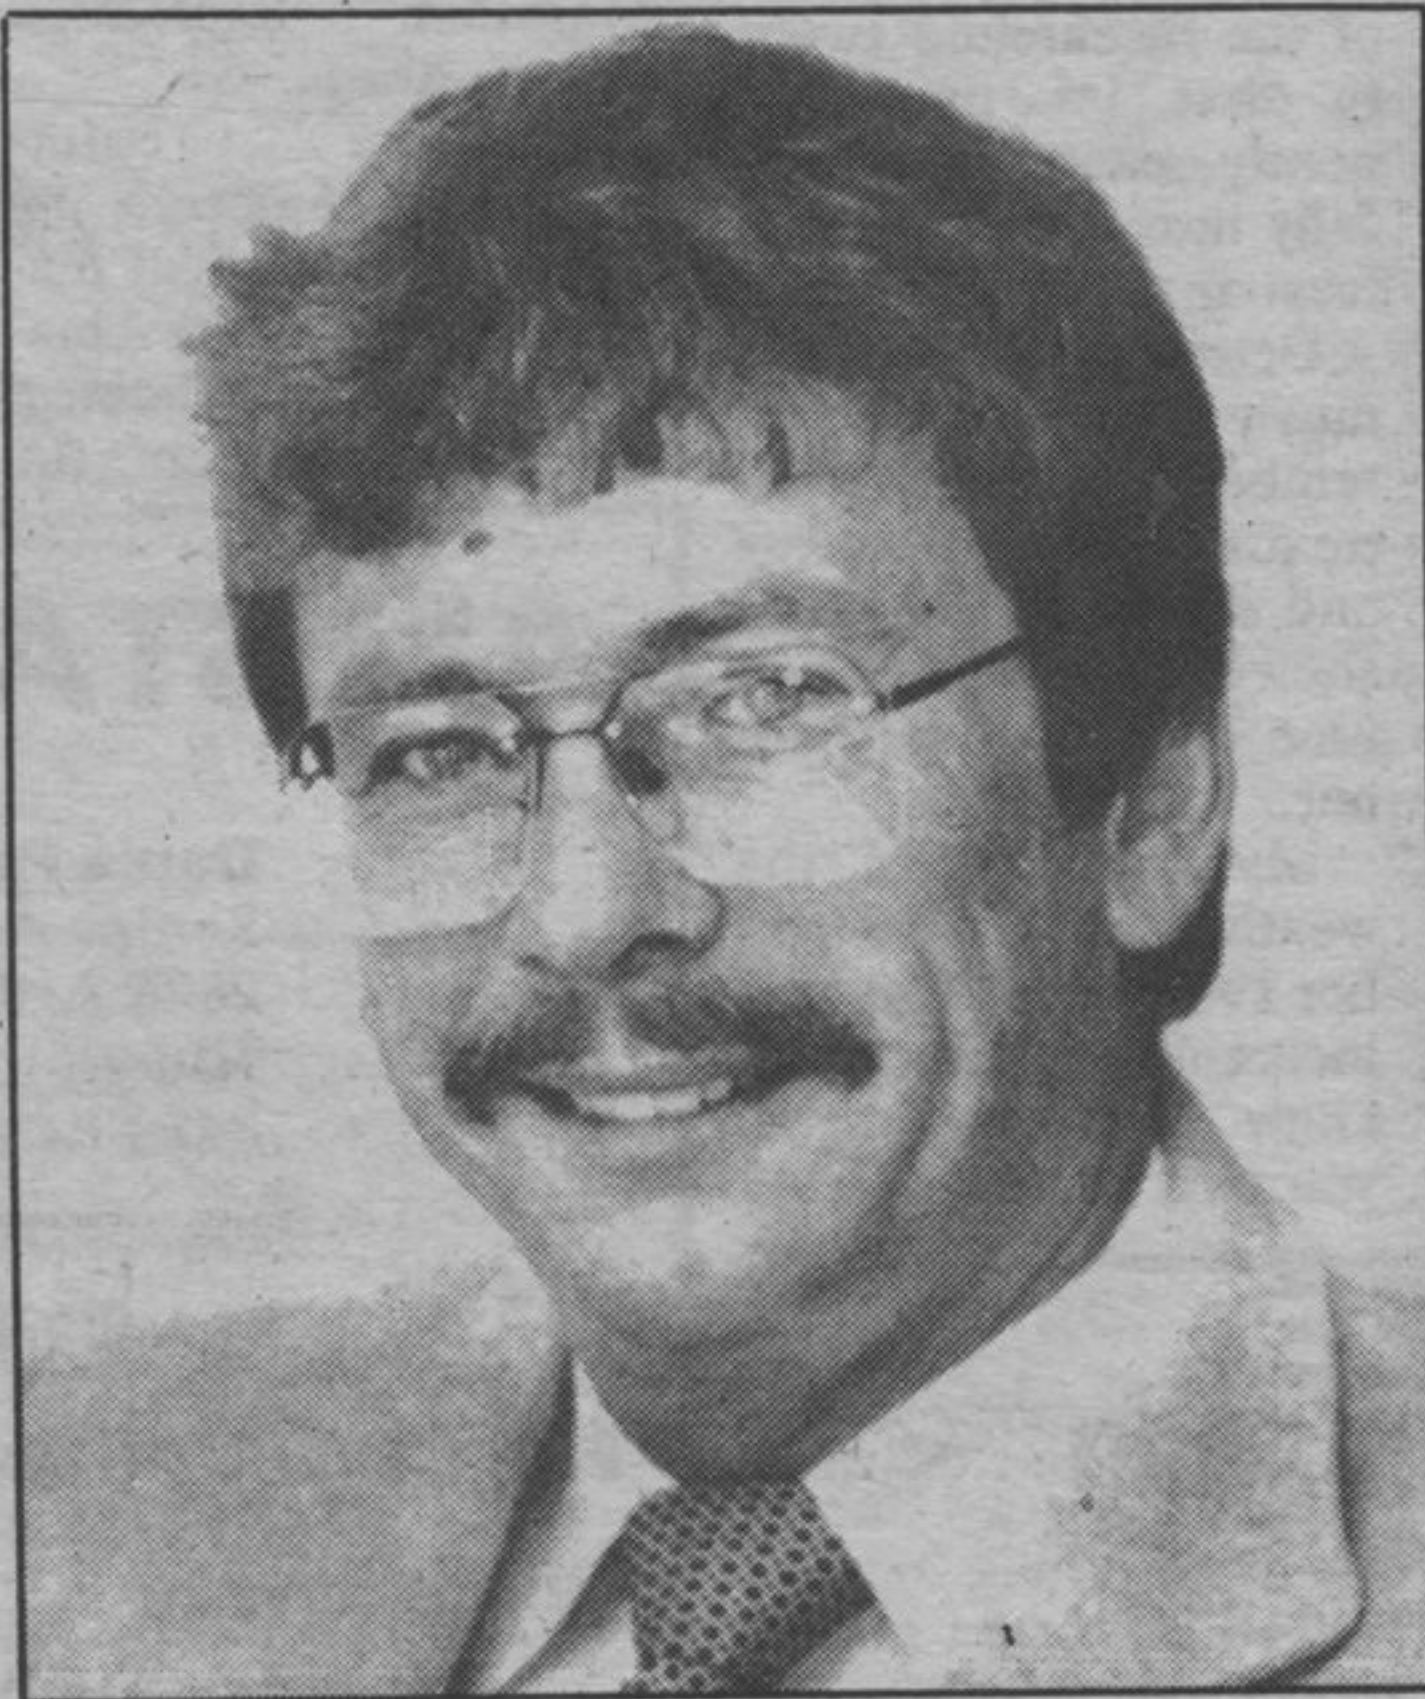

"As a Mayor", said Power, "I am well aware of the neglect that the North suffers through lack of development incentive and the resultant absence of job creation. It is crucial that we look at the North with new eyes and provide the policies and incentives to enable the transition from a resource based economy to a mixed economy."

The Mayor said, "I am convinced that we must question and re-examine the traditional way in which we have perceived and aided economic activity and tax sharing in Northern Ontario. The Government of Ontario must be persuaded to make this a priority."

Power said that "The Ontario Liberal Party under the leadership of David Peterson has made Northern issues a priority. The commitment of David Peterson to the North has been demonstrated by his frequent visits to all parts of the North and willingness to listen to and seek solutions for the concerns of Northerners."

Forum on Creativity

This fall, residents of five Ontario regions will be able to take part in a TVOntario pilot project that celebrates the human capacity for creativity.

From early October until December, residents of Ottawa, the Niagara Peninsula, London, Thunder Bay, North Bay, and surrounding areas that receive the TVOntario signal can take part in the Forum on Creativity. The forum is a vehicle for personal exploration that encourages participants to acquire and trade new skills and ideas in order to enrich their personal and professional lives. The TVOntario Forum on Creativity combines the use of print resources and recommended television viewing from TVOntario's fall broadcast schedule that is intended to encourage people to acknowledge and explore their own creative abilities.

Mary Graham, the coordinator of the pilot project, explains that the forum's designation "was derived from the idea of creating a kind of psychological meeting place where people can share experiences that will increase their confidence in and utilization of their personal creativity. Creativity is evident in the everyday actions of all men and women," and, says Graham, "we hope that the Forum on Creativity will allow people to discover a more creative, open approach to relationships, work, leisure, and everyday problem solving."

Participants in the pilot forum will have the opportunity to evaluate the forum concept. Says Graham, "If the project is successful, TV Ontario may offer additional forums to TVOntario viewers throughout the province."
