

Junior Citizens Nominations

If you know of a "good kid" who deserves an award for community work, bravery or striving to overcome a physical limitation, nominate them for an Ontario Junior Citizen of the Year award before the end of October.

Bicentennial history books, airline trips across Canada, a reception with Ontario's Lieutenant Governor, plaques and lapel pins are the prizes awaiting Ontario's 1984 Junior Citizens.

"We are seeking to honor Ontario's outstanding young people - not just the superheroes, but also the good all-round kids who are working today to become our leaders of tomorrow", said Dave Wenger of Mount Forest, Chairman of the Junior Citizen program.

Nomination forms are available at the Terrace Bay Schreiber News office and the deadline for nominations is October 31.

The Junior Citizen program, co-ordinated by the Ontario Community Newspaper Association, is sponsored by CP Air. Lieutenant Governor John B. Aird is the program's patron and additional support is being received this year from the Bicentennial Program operated by the Ontario Ministry of Tourism and Recreation.

In its first three years, the program received a total of 428 nominations and organizers are hoping for a new record in numbers in 1984. The 12 outstanding nominees and their families will be guests of Ontario Community Newspapers Association at its annual convention in Toronto next March, when Lieutenant Governor Aird will make the presentations and host a special reception for the visitors in his Queen's Park suite. Each of the 12 nominees will receive a CP Air ticket to any Canadian destination, a family portrait with the Lieutenant Governor, a plaque and lapel pin. An additional 12 top ranking nominees will receive an airline ticket and a certificate, to be presented by their local newspaper publisher. All the young people nominated in 1984 will receive a Bicentennial book.

Groups and individuals can be nominated if they have performed single or continuing acts of courage, shown ingenuity, resourcefulness, fortitude or selfless service. Nominees may also be involved in worthwhile community service, have overcome disabling physical or psychological handicaps, or have performed acts of heroism - perhaps endangering their own lives. Any nominee from previous years who continues in their noteworthy endeavors is eligible to be nominated again.

A Junior Citizen can be aged 6 to 18 years and any citizen resident in Ontario can submit a nomination. For further information contact the News Office.

Hunters Beware

As each new hunting season approaches, safety authorities start preparing for the bad news: the new toll of victims who will fall prey to their own sport. While hunters prepare with enthusiasm for a sport that challenges their skills and invigorates their senses, families of hunters, farmers, safety authorities, and health specialists wait with fear and anxiety.
