Halloween

Halloween is fun. The kids dress up in costumes. At Halloween the kids go out trick or treating. I go trick or treating at my friends' house to scare them away. Then I go to my cousins' house and scare them away. Then I go to my other cousins' house to scare them away. My cousins come to my house to scare me away. I go to my friends' house to count my candy.

The Haunted House

Once upon a time there was an old, old, house. Everyone called it the haunted house. One day, a little girl and a little boy went into the house. It was very dark and scary. As they walked, the floor was squeaking. Tim said, 'I heard a bat.' 'It does not matter', said Kim. Suddenly, someone said 'Boo!' 'Who is that?' said Tim. 'It's only me', said a voice. It was Jack. 'What are you doing here?' said Tim. 'I'm looking for a skeleton', said Jack. 'Where is it? I've checked everywhere but the bathroom. Well, let's go, O.K.?' They went in and the skeleton was on the toilet. 'Let's go home and have some lemonade', said Kim. 'O.K.', said Jack.

Halloween

There are haunted houses and black cats and goblins and ghosts go o-o-o-o. You go to people's houses and say trick or treat. I like to do Mr. T.

Halloween

On Halloween I would like to be a cheerleader. My friend is going to make some pompoms for me and my sister.

it done. Most oil companies have a special of one sort or another on at present so the bite on the pocketbook isn't as severe.

When investigating winter automobile accidents one area stands out above all the rest as a contributing factor, that being "driving too fast for road or traffic conditions." Drivers are asked to think winter driving - slow down, allow yourself lots of time for a trip and be prepared for the unexpected.

The Moving Radar will continue to be used extensively and speeders will be charged. Protect your licence and your life by reducing the speed of your vehicle.
