Writing festival

Anyone interested in writing, learning to write or improving their writing skills may be interested in the Fifth Annual Squatchberry Festival in Kenora.

The Lake of the Woods Writers are organizing and sponsoring this event and workshops will include: Writing for Children, Techniques for Short Fiction, Non-Fiction Writing, The ABCs of Poetry, plus Self-Awareness and Creativity.

The workshop takes place May 24th and 25th. The event seems well organized, with a chartered bus leaving Thunder Bay the morning of the 24th. For more information contact: Florence Mead, P.O. Box 19, Kenora, Ontario, P9N 3X1, before April 1st.

THANK YOU

Schreiber's New Years baby Jesse Alexander and his parents Clyde and Elena Gordon, wish to thank the women's institute for the shower that was held in the Schreiber Town Hall. Thank you to friends, businesses, and the Kinnettes for all the beautiful gifts. A special thank you to Mayor Fisher for the silver baby cup that was presented to Jesse with a well wishing for the future.

Thank you to anyone and everyone who helped in any way.
