

Terrace Bay's first annual grand prix

The streets of Radisson, Selkirk and Hudson Drive were transformed into Terrace Bay's first Mini Grand Prix Race Way on the July 1st weekend. This was one of the most popular events of the weekend that marked Canada's 118th Birthday. It attracted cars and their owners from as far away as Minnesota and Manitoba.

On Saturday the race was divided into 9-10 lap heats, and on Sunday the race was divided into 3-25 laps to end up with the finals.
