Squash and Racquetball News

We are presently trying to form leagues for Youth and Adults to interest them in the games of Racquetball and Squash. There is a Special Release printed elsewhere in this paper that will give you more information on what we are hoping to achieve through use of the Squash & Racquetball courts.

For more information on these leagues call the Recreation Office at 3542.

Outreach Programs

Basic Communications: CS 101 Basic Communications is a developmental approach to reading and writing skills employing a modular & direct teaching techniques. This course is a basic prerequisite for all diploma & parttime certificate courses at the College.

Child Psychology

PY 105 is a study of human development from conception to age six. Emphasis will be on socialization and personality development during the years of early childhood.

Other courses presented by Confederation College and offered through Terrace Bay Recreation Department are:

Conversational French: GS 114 — Essentially the method of GS 114 Conversational French involves guided imitation under the constant supervision of an instructor, the student learns to manipulate the sequences and patterns of the French language. This French provided is French as it is really spoken in natural conversation.

Students enrolling in this course must have successfully passed GS 114 or have a Grade 13 education. This is the continuation of the GS 114 course. It is imperative that the student attend every class in these Conversational French classes as you will have difficulty catching up.

Call the Recreation Office for more information on these courses:

Hospital Auxiliary

through an arrangement with the board of education, the meetings were held in St. Martin's School in Terrace Bay and the High School in Schreiber. Thus, the Auxiliary has had many homes over the years until it settled in the McCausland Hospital cafeteria.

We desperately need active members to help us carry out our many activities. Since the hospital services Rossport, Schreiber and Terrace Bay, we would welcome volunteers from these areas. The key to successful community involvement is having the people you are taking care of help you do it. As a volunteer you are needed and depended upon. If you feel you would like to be involved in even a small way, please contact G. Strassberger, Anne Wilkes or Marg Gander. The next meeting of the Hospital Auxiliary will be November 18. We'd love to see you there!
