

Munchy (Kevin Cocks) for Council

Many people have been worried, what I would say, when I made my sales pitch. Because I am very outspoken, my friends and relatives, have been cautioning me not to publically insult any of our local officials, and glorified volunteers, who do nothing, but take credit for everything.

I am running for Schreiber Council. Why? Not to win a popularity contest. Not to beat my chest about all I have done for Schreiber as everybody else does. Because I am tired of complaining about town affairs. I'm tired of asking questions without getting answers. I'm tired of always the same people, running my, our town. I'm tired of being one of the many that cry about the state of our town, but do nothing to improve it.

Well, I'm off my rear, and in gear. I'm not battling for a job of council. The battle comes after.

If I'm elected, I am going to answer a lot of unanswered questions. No more excuses to the people, the taxpayers. My job will be to get answers and results! I joke about me running. It is a joke, until I'm elected. I'm not shaking hands or kissing babies. If I win then I'll shake some hands, and probably a few less friends. If I win ... you win. Because your questions will be mine. I'll find the answers to OUR questions. It will be made PUBLIC! I want to change the attitude of our townspeople. No more wars with the town and individuals. We will work together to rectify all problems, and to improve our community, and our personal relations. Everything open and above the table! Nuff said! Vote for me cause I'm only running once.
