

Cook of the Week

Our cook for this week is Gerry Withers. Gerry, along with his wife Cathy, and their two daughters, Allyson 9 years and Lindsay 6 years old have lived in Terrace Bay now for 3 years. Gerry is an employee of Kimberly Clark in the Industrial Relations Department. Gerry and his wife Cathy are involved in Parent Link. The name "Leaside High" comes from the fact that these cookies taste like ones he used to eat in High School. It took 4-5 years to find this recipe which they eventually found in a Government Cook Book. They have had this recipe for about 9 years, and still make them regularly, even though only Gerry and his oldest daughter, Allyson like them.

"Leaside High" Oatmeal Cookies

¾ cup of margarine (or lard)
1 cup white sugar
2 cups rolled oats
½ cup sour milk (add 2 tsp. of vinegar to fresh milk, and let stand 10 minutes)
2 cups all-purpose flour
½ tsp. baking soda
2 tsp. baking powder
¼ tsp. salt

Cream the margarine and sugar. Add the rolled oats alternately with the sour milk. Sift the dry ingredients together and add them to the mixture (you may have to chill the dough to stiffen it some before the next step). Roll out the dough until it's ¼" thick, cut out (I use the rim of a glass) and bake on a greased cookie sheet at 350 degrees for 10-12 minutes. Makes 2 to 3 doz. 2½" dia. semi-soft cookies in which you can really taste the oatmeal ("Dad's" cookies they're not). They taste not unlike Scottish oatcakes.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Readers:

At this time of year when we are all thinking about our Christmas obligations it is also time to think of those less fortunate.

Many of us have said that we would help someone but we don't know what is needed of us. To assist with that problem we are now collecting new or used items to be sent to the Northwestern Regional Centre in Thunder Bay.

This Centre is funded by the Ministry of Community and Social Services the area from the Manitoba border to just west of Wawa.

They presently care for 142 mentally handicapped children and adults ages 6 and up.

Their present budget does not allow for Christmas gifts and they are not permitted to solicit donations.

Parents, if you are trying to dispose of old toys, we will gladly accept them if they are in good condition. If you are not a parent please consider buying a gift or making a cash donation which will be used for gifts.

We will accept any toys, games, perfumes, musical items, mitts, hats, scarves, socks: the list is endless, unfortunately we cannot accept clothing.

Drop off boxes will be set up at the Terrace Bay Credit Union and the Terrace Bay Recreation Office. This Christmas please think of these children as well as your own family and friends.

Please contact me for any further information. Thank you.
