

Winnie's Scribbles

by Winnie Campbell

The regular monthly meeting of the CWL was held on November 10, 1985 in the Holy Angel's Rectory.

Two guest speakers, Lise Goodheart and Frank Cappa joined the meeting. They spoke on the issue of abortion and a short film was presented. They hope to open up a Pregnancy Support Centre in Terrace Bay.

Speaking briefly on issues from the past, Archie Gleason from Schreiber was the winner of the $1,000 bond. The Youth Day Project held on Nov. 9 was a tremendous success. A total of 50 youths were present.

The evening ended with a raffle of a Christmas centrepiece which was won by Mrs. Gagnon from Schreiber. Get well in hospital to Wes Miller and Mr. Lemieux.

The Holy Angels' Christmas Tea and Bazaar was held on Nov. 30. Many people enjoyed a delicious chicken party lunch and were able to do a lot of Christmas shopping. Besides knitting, sewing and bake tables, there was a special addition this year. A table was set up with specially priced items just for the children. It seemed to be a big success.

The convenors who were responsible for making this bazaar were: Rita Scott, Mary Fummerton, Rita Cook: head convenors. Aileen Ross: Knitting. Caila Morones: Baking. Rose Speziale: Sewing. Sheila Parent, Marion Henri: lunch. Carmel Zborowski, Jackie Commisso: Toy Table. Roxanne McLellan: Hostess.

Special thanks to all who were so generous with their time and help, especially the chef, Yves Therri.

Congratulations to the winners of the draws and raffles: Christmas cakes: Bessie Schelling, Janet Moorey. Snowman cake: Marg Tiboni. Handknit sweater: Gladys Parent. Angora mitts: Sheila Parent. Teddy bear: Rosemary Commisso. Barbie clothes: Cristy Sitko. Door prize: Mrs. V. Goodchild.

The Anglican Church women had a very successful bazaar on Nov. 23.

The winners of draws and door prize were: Fruit cake: Joanne Oakman. Grocery hamper: Aida McPauland. Gingerbread candy house: Judy St. Amand. Rocking horse: Terry Thomson. Sleeping girl lamp: Lorette Catagord. Christmas centrepiece: Alice Fairservice. Door prize (winter scene ornaments): Linda Collinson.

The ACW wishes to thank everyone who donated some of their talents and work to make this another successful bazaar. We also wish to thank everyone who came out and supported us.

St. John's will be busy in the Christmas period. On Dec. 15 there was a traditional carol service. This is to be followed by the Children's Pageant at 10:30 a.m. on Sunday, Dec. 22. The traditional carolling in private homes for shut ins is planned for the evening of Dec. 22. Two Eucharists (Contemporary at 7 p.m., traditional at 11 p.m.) will be celebrated on Dec. 24, with a further Communion on Christmas Day at 9 a.m. All Christians are welcome to join the folks at St. John's for services and events.

On Nov. 30 Father Bill and other parishioners of St. John's and other churches travelled to Nipigon for a Retreat at St. Mary's Anglican Church.
