

Terrace Bay Pee Wees win hockey tournament

One of the highlights of the Schreiber Winter Carnival held last week was the Fifth Annual Schreiber Invitational Pee Wee Hockey Tournament, which ended on March 9 with the Championship Game won by Terrace Bay.

In the Consolation Final held earlier the same day, the Kiwanis Flyers from Atikokan had a slim 4-3 lead over the Nipigon Elks with about three minutes left in the game when Steven Dubois popped in an unassisted shorthanded goal to give the Flyers a 5-3 lead. They eventually won, 6-3.

The Championship Game between Terrace

Bay Legion and defending champions Schreiber Travel Rest Eagles started off with end-to-end action but few goals. Near the end of the second period the game was tied 1-1 when Terrace Bay put one in to take the lead.

With 10:10 left in the third, Legion's Kevin Boucher scored what proved to be the winning goal. Schreiber's Marc Tremblay put his team back to within one at 8:27, but their rivals from Terrace Bay regained their two goal margin about a minute later with a goal by Mike Clements on a breakaway. The score was now 4-2.

Clements popped in an unassisted effort at the 6:29 mark to make it 5-2, and that was the final score, even though Schreiber pulled their goaltender Bryon Cosgrove late in the game. Rick Pollard was between the pipes for Terrace Bay, and following the game he was named the Most Valuable Player for the entire tournament.

Other teams taking part in the event were Wawa Raiders, Thunder Bay Elks 13's, Chapleau Flyers, and Thunder Bay Elks Athletic 12's. The tournament chairman was Justin Martin and the co-chairmen were Coe Commisso and Doran Spencer. The tourney was sponsored by the Schreiber Kinsmen, and they were represented during the weekend by Gordon Moorey.

Schreiber Bantams win

Mark Figliomeni was a one-man scoring squad as he put in all four of his team's goals, including one in double sudden death overtime, as the Schreiber Bantam Kings defeated the host Marathon club to win the third annual Marathon Bantam 'B' Hockey Tour-namment held on March 8 and 9.

Schreiber advanced to the Championship Game by winning the B Division over teams from Nipigon and Red Rock, while Marathon got past both Fort William and Fallen Rocks to take the A Division.

In the final match, Schreiber held a 3-1 lead at the end of the second period. However, Marathon stormed back with two quick goals in the third to tie things up.

At the end of the first five-minute sudden death overtime period, the game was still deadlocked. The teams then took a short break and returned for a 10 minute overtime period. After about four minutes of play, Figliomeni scored his fourth straight goal of the contest to win the game and the tournament.

SORRY — NO MINORS

mental retardation affects thousands of Canadians...

You can reduce the odds

Parents can avoid many birth related defects through sensible living habits. You should take these precautions:

1. Stick to a well balanced diet with lots of fresh fruits and vegetables.
2. Avoid excessive use of alcohol and non medical, drugs.
3. Cut down or cut out smoking.
4. Ask your doctor to make sure you both have compatible blood types.
5. Notify your doctor of any family history of retardation or other medical problems on both sides.
6. Be sure you are immunized against German measles.
7. Avoid excessive exposure to X-Rays.
8. Get your doctor's approval before taking drugs or medication and take only what is necessary.
9. Visit your doctor regularly ... and take his advice.
10. Insist that your baby be given a P.K.U. test before leaving the hospital. It could mean preventing retardation before it occurs.

What will he be like mommy?
