

Minor ball to begin soon

Minor Ball
Well, we have the coaches and the interest for the following leagues: T-Ball, 5-7 years, Boys and Girls; Petite Canadians, 8-10 years, Girls; Junior Canadians, 11-13 years, Girls; Junior Nationals, 8-12 years, Boys.

Unfortunately the registration for Senior National Boys (13-16) was insufficient. Senior Canadian Girls (14-16) team had insufficient registration as well. Coaches will be contacting their teams in the near future.

Fun Run Walk '86
Although we didn't obtain one of the North Shore Banners, we are pleased to announce that participation in Terrace Bay increased by 12 percent. 897 people participated.

Awards were: Largest Family: Mrs. E. Falzetta. Oldest: Steward Anderson. Youngest: Jennifer Simmer (10 days). Largest Organization: McCausland Hospital. Largest School: Public School.

Colouring Contest Winners: 5-9 years, Melissa Kenny. 10-15 years, Natasha Moskawa.

A special thank you is extended to Gwen Black, Jacque Snider and Wendy Landry for conducting the Fun Aerobic Session in the arena. We also express our thanks to Bill McDougall for driving the Fire Truck and to Constable Fewer for leading the parade. It was great to see the Scollard Family dressed in costume for the event. An excellent idea for next year.

Results from the 1986 North Shore Participation Challenge:

Summer Program
The pool will hopefully be in operation by June 20 for your enjoyment. Registration for lessons will be held within the next two weeks, once the summer staff is hired.

Canada Day
Reeve Ollie Chapman and her committee of volunteers have put together an excellent program for all ages to enjoy on the Canada Day weekend. The Recreation Department will be conducting some different and unusual events for children.

Banner won

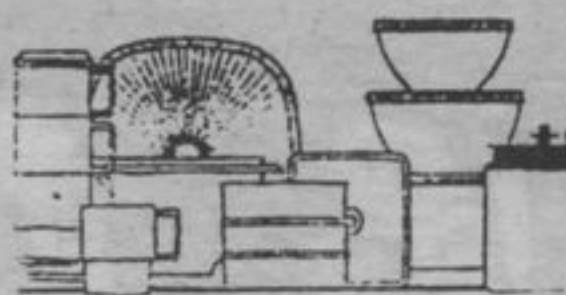

Fun Run
Well, we did it again! We retained our banner for the greatest percentage of our population participating in the Fun Run. The citizens of Schreiber can be proud of our banner now on display at the Chimo Club for everyone to see. Take heart Terry, you placed second to the biggest little town in Ontario.
