

One too pooped

Although one of their teammates, at left, ran out of air and energy, these other youngsters combined their remaining lungpower to keep the game ball away from their side of the mat. It was just one of the contests held as part of Play Day on June 18 at Terrace Bay Public School. The object of this game, of course, is to blow the ball to your opponents' side and right off the playing field. (Photograph by Conrad Felber)

Join the Reading Club

Want to take a vacation this summer? You can take a trip anywhere in the world or out of the world when you sign up with the Terrace Bay Public Library Summer Reading Club.

Join us in "Monster Madness," the theme of this year's club. The club will run from July 10 to August 28. Admission is free to children 8 to 13 years of age. Register now at your library.

Don't forget to come out and celebrate Canada Day. Children's programming sponsored by the library will be held in the arena Saturday, June 28.

Rodney Brown will entertain children between 2 and 3 p.m. and magician David Bannerstone will perform this magic show between 3 and 4 p.m. This entertainment will be held in the arena between 2 and 4 p.m. Saturday, June 28. If you have any further questions contact the library at 825-3819.
