

Public schools in area hold graduation exercises

School valedictorian

Alyson Graham's valedictorian address was very well received by the audience and students at the Terrace Bay Public School graduation ceremonies held on June 19. After her speech, though, the Grade 8 student received something herself. She was awarded the school's General Proficiency award for top marks.

June 19 was Graduation Day for students at both Terrace Bay Public School and Schreiber Public, with awards presented to outstanding graduates at each annual ceremony.

Both schools also decided not to have guest speakers this year and went with valedictorians instead. At Terrace Bay's graduation, this turned out to be Alyson Graham, while in Schreiber there were co-valedictorians, Jennifer O'Reilly and Krisha Tessier.

The General Proficiency Award for top marks in the graduating class in Terrace Bay went to Alyson Graham, while in Schreiber that award was presented to both Krisha Tessier and Jennifer O'Reilly.

Catherine Birch won the Effort and Ability plaque at the Schreiber ceremony. In Terrace Bay, that award resulted in a tie between J.J. Davis and Jason Douglas.

The Most Improved student award in Terrace Bay went to Wendi-Deanne Whittaker, while Kathy Wiseman took that plaque in Schreiber.

The Highest Average in Science and Math trophy was awarded to J.J. Davis in Terrace Bay. William Roen was the winner of that award in Schreiber. He also took home the plaque for Most Improved Student in English, known as the Sage Literary Award in Terrace Bay, where Khristurpin was the winner.

There were 14 graduating Grade 8 students at Schreiber Public School this year. They were Catherine Birch, Jason Fortier, Earl Gerow, Jason Iddison, Christopher Krause, Tom Loumala, Albert Martin, Shaine Martin, Eric Niemi, Jennifer O'Reilly, William Roen, Colin Scott, Krisha Tessier, and Kathy Wiseman.

A total of 29 received their diplomas at Terrace Bay Public School on June 19. They were as follows: Corinne Bouchie, Shawn Bursey, Michael Clements, J.J. Davis, Tanya Ditchfield, Jason Douglas, Mike Duhaime, Belinda Earle, Fleurette Earle, Alyson Graham, Michael Holmes,
