Power Squadron meeting held

The annual Change of Watch meeting, barbeque and social was held by the Nipigon-North Shore Power Squadron on June 13 at Scott's Camp, according to a news release.

Present at the session were Don and Pat Beno, Arnie and Val O'Keefe, Rollie and Teresa Stortini, Bill and Bev Roen, Les and Marg Graham, Dan and Barbara Moore, Tony Comisso, Dan Miller, Frank Hodder, Donna Mikeluk, and Mary Stortini. Jim Reid, District

Training Officer from Thunder Bay, was an invited guest.

To qualify for membership in Canadian Power Squadrons, candidates attend classes during the winter months and must attain a mark of 80 per cent or more.

Those receiving the Basic Boating Certificates and the Power Squadron official flag this year were Bev Roen, Tony Comisso and Dan Moore. Jim Reid led these graduates in the CPS pledge on entering the Squadron and presented them with their certificates. Arnie O'Keefe, the Training Officer for the Nipigon-North Shore Power Squadron, instructed these new members.

Members can further their boating education in the following courses: Seamanship Power, Seamanship Sail, Advanced Pilot, Junior Navigator, Marine Maintenance, and weather.

Rollie Stortini taught a course in Seamanship Power over the winter months, and successful candidates were Mary Stortini, Bill Roen, Bob McParland, and Clayton Gordon.

Under new business at the meeting, Frank Hodder suggested that the Squadron get involved with a project to blast out the big rock in the channel at the mouth of the Aguasabon River. After much discussion, Dan Beno moved that a report be sent to the Canadian Coast Guard to get a marker put on this shoal.

Jim Reid mentioned an extension, correspondence course which is being offered to those area residents residing outside of Thunder Bay and the Terrace Bay-Schreiber area.

Lisa Graham, Squadron Commander, circulated an invitation to attend a boating rendezvous in Rosport on August 1 to 3. Bill Rown will head up a committee to plan a meeting of the Power Squadron members to coincide with this.

Jim Reid announced a name change to Canadian Power and Sail Squadrons. It was moved and passed that the squadron name be the Nipigon-North Shore Squadron.

Nomination chairperson Teresa Stortini had approached executive members who all stated their intention to remain in office.

As the Public Relations positions was not filled, Bill Roen nominated Dan Miller. This was seconded and carried. Officers for the 1986-87 terms are:

Commander: Les Graham. Vice-Commander: Frank Hodder. Secretary-Treasurer: Mary Stortini. Public Relations: Dan Miller. It is hoped that the annual fall meeting and social can be reinstated this year.

Is your driveway full of holes?

Then it's time to invest in a permanent, concrete driveway.

- One that will last, trouble-free, for 25 years
- One that is impervious to winter cold or summer sun.
- One that won't get holes, birdbaths or ruts.

Thinking of an asphalt driveway? Don't make your decision until you've checked the permanent, good-looking alternative - concrete!
