

You can still register for some rec programs

An eight-hour emergency first aid course is just one of the many programs being offered by the Terrace Bay Recreation Office this fall.

The St. John Ambulance first aid course will take place on Nov. 29 for four hours, from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. and concluded on Nov. 30, again from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m.

This course will be certified by the St. John Ambulance. A release from the Recreation Office pointed out that taking the course may prove helpful in dealing with emergency situations either at home or at work. Those interested in taking the course are encouraged to register for it now.

Here are details for the other programs, as explained by the Recreation Office release:

Aerobics

Gwen Black will be offering more sessions of her aerobics, non-impact aerobics, and add-a-class aerobics. These classes are scheduled to start on Oct. 27. Those presently attending Gwen's classes should call the Rec Office early, as there is a limited registration.

Body Basics

Due to the response of this popular class, there will be another session offered commencing Nov. 4. This program takes place every Tuesday and Thursday afternoon from 1:30 p.m. to 3 p.m.

Youth Bowling

Now is the time to register your child for Youth Bowling. This class is open to youth aged seven to 14 years. The program commences this Saturday, Oct. 4 from 10 a.m. to 12 noon. Call the Rec Office at 825-3542 for more information.

Ceramics Workshop

Sylvia will now be holding a

Thursday night ceramics workshop commencing on Oct. 2 from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. Contact the Rec Office for more information.

Emotional Stress Release

Have you ever felt pressured by either your work situation or just dealing with everyday situations? Why not come out to the Conference Room at the Rec Centre tonight, Oct. 1, from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. and learn how to get your feelings back in perspective.

Knitting (Advanced)

This program will be geared for participants who know the basics of knitting. Cable stitch, lace stitches, and learning to work with colours will be taught. The course starts on Oct. 15 at 7 p.m. in the Conference Room at the Recreation Centre.

Krafts for Kids

Oct. 30 is the start date for this interesting children's program. It will include printing, weaving, clay work, etc. The class is open to children aged seven to 12.

Learn To Skate

We have several openings in the afternoon Learn To Skate program. This session will start on Monday, Oct. 20 and run every Monday and Wednesday afternoon thereafter from 2 p.m. to 3 p.m.

Macrame

Sherri Brand will be instructing this program of Basic Macrame knots. The program is a one-day session to be held on Sunday, Oct. 19 commencing at 10 a.m.

Photography

We need more registration in this one-day photography course to make it a success. Basic instruction in the use of a 35 mm camera and the use of creative filters and flash systems will be demonstrated.

Quilting

Would you like to learn how to make quilts, tote bags, pillows, etc. by using the hand or machine stitch methods? Give us a call at 825-3542 for more information on this course.

Racquetball Lessons

Keith Milne, an excellent racquetball player, is willing to commence lessons to adults on Oct. 7. This four-week program is scheduled for Tuesdays from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. Get some enjoyment out of life by learning the game of racquetball.

Rice Paper Lampshades

This program will be held on Oct. 24 and Oct. 25. This intriguing, useful art will be taught by Darlene Noble. You can style or refinish your new or old lampshades. Call the Rec Office for further details.

Squash Lessons (Adult)

Gerry Mikalauskas will be instructing the adult squash lessons this fall. Gerry is an excellent player and is willing to teach this sport to beginners. We need more registration for this program, which is due to start on Oct. 16.

Stained Glass

This interesting ancient art form program will commence on Oct. 14. Ken Randle will be teaching it, using the copper foil technique. Window hangings and possibly a small lamp shade will be made during this program. Its duration will be six weeks, taking place every Wednesday from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m.

4-H Club News Report

By Press Reporter Kerry Robinson
Our first meeting was held on Sept. 17 in the Home-Ec Room of the High School. We covered the topics of calcium and osteoporosis. We also lected our officers: President, Jennifer Lohnes; Vice President, Jan Kraehling; Sec-retary, Sandy McBride; Treasurer, Karin Kraehling; Press Reporter, Kerry Robinson.

We also have three club leaders. We made Nachos and ended the meeting by eating them. They were delicious!

Editorial Letter Policy

Letters to the editor of the Terrace Bay-Schreiber News are welcomed at any time on any subject. However, there are a few pointers one should keep in mind.

First of all, all letters should be typed, if possible, or at least legibly handwritten. Secondly, long letters will be accepted, but the shorter the better, as the News reserved the right to edit or refuse any submission.

Also, the name of the letter's author must be included, as well as his or her address and telephone number so that the letter can be verified if necessary. No anonymous submissions will be published.

Finally, you may send your epistles to the editor of the News at P.O. Box 855, Terrace Bay, Ontario, P0T 2W0 or drop them off in person at the News office located in the basement of the Post Office building on Simcoe Plaza. Our phone number is 825-3747.

Also please note that effective immediately, the News office will be closed every Tuesday afternoon. Our normal office hours on other days are 9 a.m. to 12 noon and 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Monday to Friday.

Each issue of the News is available at the office every Wednesday, usually by 12 noon.
