

Slo pitch season ends with trophy presentation

The third annual Terrace Bay Slo-Pitch Wind-Up was held on Sept. 27 at which the various league awards were presented.

Master of Ceremonies, Rick St.

Louis, called on Stu Almost to say grace followed by a delicious smorgasbord supper, catered by the Women of the Moose.

President Jim Corrigan and Secretary Linda Orlesky were then called upon to present the various awards. The Season Championship Plaque was presented to the Tigers, as were mugs donated by O.V.

Specially donated awards were then presented to the playoff runners-up, the Goodtimers. Next were the Kimberly-Clark playoff trophy and individual Tall Boy trophies, with were all presented to the Bandits.

Team Most Valuable Players included: Toivo Hirt, Bandits; Brian Whitney, Bears; Mike Serre, Goodtimers; Pete Gilbert, Lakers; Bill Caron, New Yorkers; Max Miller, Rebels; Al Lavigne, Stingers; Bob Wallwin, Strange Brew; Dan Viennau, Tigers; and Stan Greenwood, Truckers.

Playoffs MVPs went to Bob Bagdon of Goodtimers and Lucien Theriault of the Bandits.

Helen Hermes was then called as a representative of the Ladies League.

She presented the MVP trophies to the following team players: Moore's, Darryl Davis; Janod, Diane O'Neill; Little Shitz, Tanya Evoy and Leo Levesque; Roxanne Gusda.

Most Sportsmanlike Player trophies were presented to: Moore's, Marianne Kostiuk; Janod, Cindy Thompson; Little Shitz, Marianne Kostiuk and Leo Levesque; Wendy Pluta.

The evening then wound to a close with dancing to the music of Nick Duchane. No date was set for a final meeting, but players interested in running for the 1987 Slo-Pitch executive are urged to watch for an announcement in a future issue of the News.

Sechesky gets pin

Frank Sechesky of Terrace Bay, at left, was presented with a soapstone sculpture and a 40-year pin by Kimberly-Clark of Canada President Jack Lavallet at the K-C Quarter Century Club annual dinner on Oct. 3. Also on hand were Sechesky's wife Lillian, at far right, and Lavallet's wife Martha.

The Anglican Church meeting on Oct. 1 had a good attendance. The President welcomed all, after a recess. The minutes were read, as was the treasurer's report.

An ACW meeting will be held on Oct. 18. All are welcome. The United Church will be used for the meeting and we will have lunch in our Parish Hall. Communion will be at 10 a.m. for all.

Readers and greetings were selected. There will be a lunch donated by the Ladies of the Dew Drop In Centre. Hazel moved that we send a good donation to the centre for needy people. All were in favour.

Edith Birch volunteered to take over Jean Tremblay's phoning responsibilities. It was agreed to ask Joan Leblanc to make posters. The card secretary will be given more sympathy and get well cards and stamps. A donation was received from Mrs. Iris Lidkea.

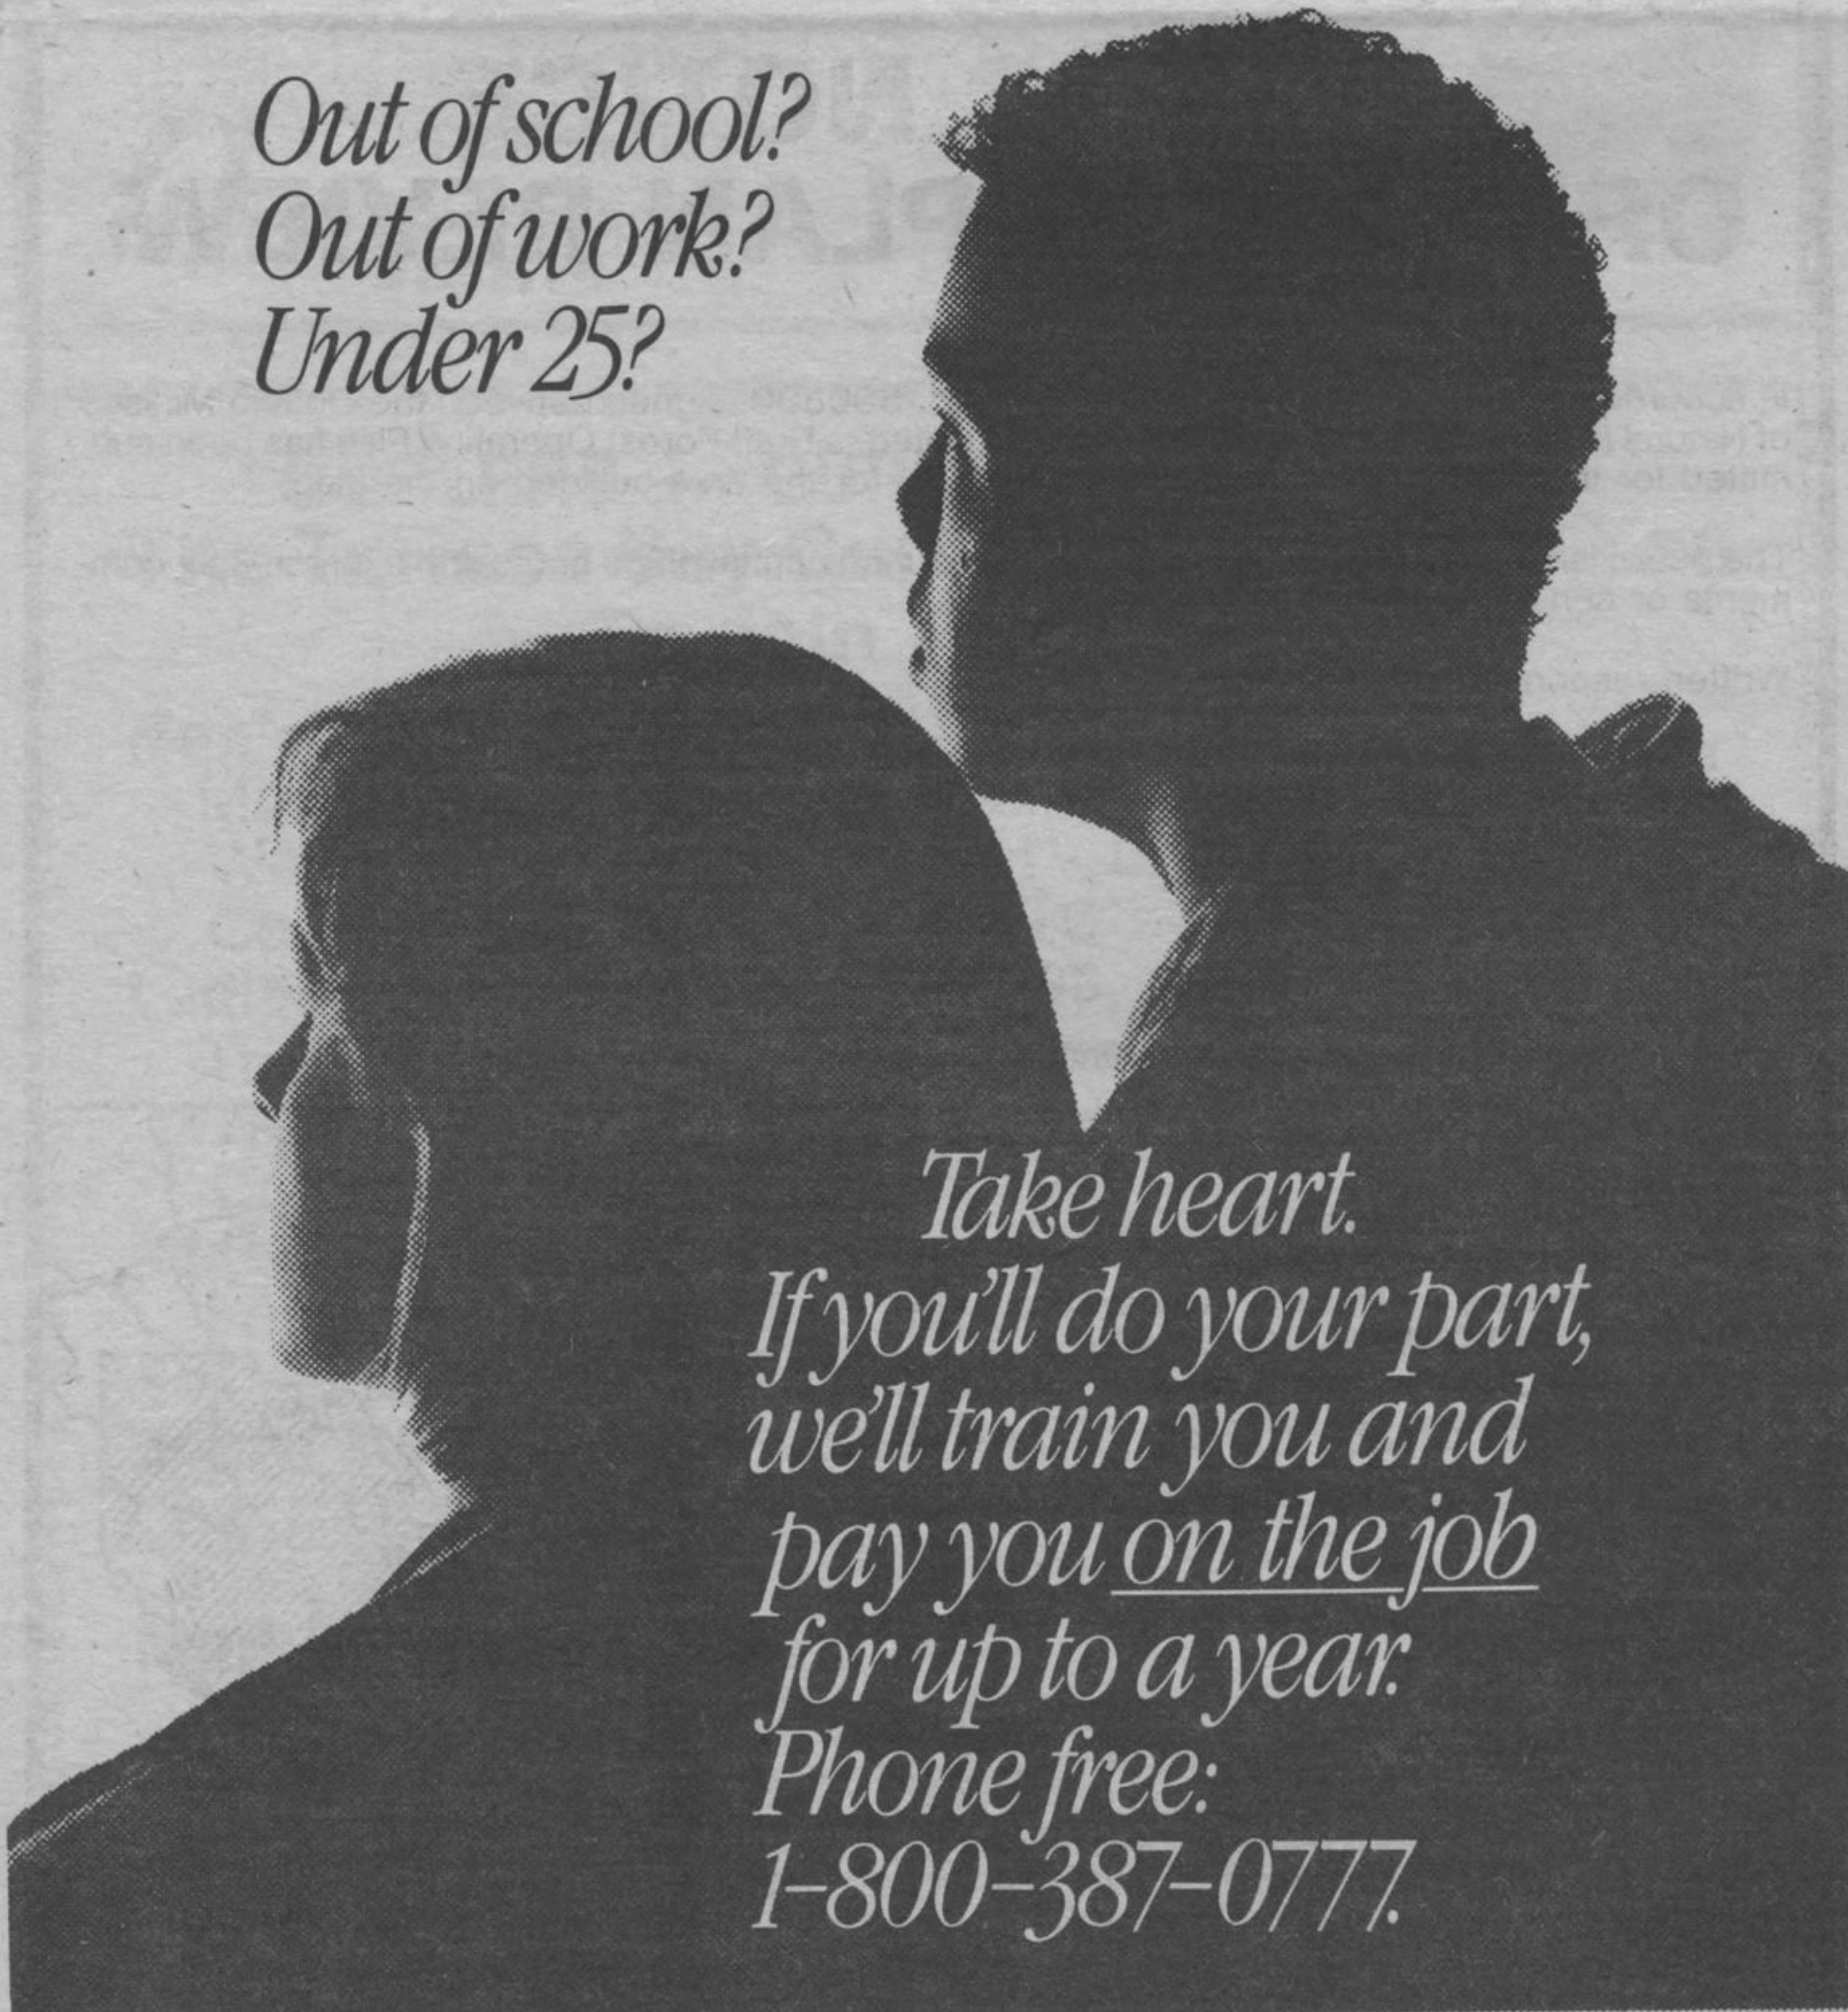

A penny auction will be held on Oct. 24, Friday afternoon, from 1:30 p.m. to 3 p.m. The Christmas Bazaar will be held on Nov. 29. There are tickets available from any of the members for two sweaters.

Mrs. Joan Leblanc will be the convener. There will be a Christmas tree for the children. Alice Miller will wrap the little gifts. The meeting closed with prayers and lunch served by Shirley and Flo.

Visiting friends from Vancouver is Mrs. Alice McGregor. Welcome back from hospital Fred Harness. The CWL penny auction, bake sale and tea was held on Sunday afternoon in the Town Hall with a good attendance. Thanks to all who donated and helped. The door prize was won by Natasha Morrell.
