

What Christmas means to kids

Schreiber Public School
What Christmas means to me.

Nancy Garon- Grade 4: Christmas means being jolly and loving everyone. It is laughter, giving, and sharing. Christmas is joy.

Ryan McEwen- Grade 3: Christmas is a time for giving and a time for receiving. It is great because we go for Christmas visits.

Jason Chapman- Grade 5: Christmas means love for others and the birth of Jesus and Santa coming down the chimney.

Natalie MacKenzie- Grade 1: Christmas means toys, sliding, and having fun. It is when we decorate the house and open presents.

Andi McLeod- Grade 1: We decorate our house and we decorate the tree. We open presents and have a turkey supper with dressing.

Rachel Baxter- Grade 1: Christmas means presents and decorated trees. We invite people over for Christmas supper.

Hilary Stewart- Grade 2: It is a time to play with my brother. I will leave Santa cookies and milk. Christmas is a family time.

Francis Jones- Grade 1: It means having fun and giving Santa cookies and milk. I get to play with my toys when I get up.

Amy Colebourne- Sr. K: Santa comes at Christmas and we get presents. We eat a turkey supper at Christmas.

Nicholas Godin- Grade 1: Christmas is when we get presents. We have fun at Christmas. I like the supper we have.

Cherie Costa- Grade 2: Christmas is love. Christmas is baby Jesus' birthday. Christmas is a family turkey supper.

Leroy Harrison- Grade 1: Christmas is when we get presents. It is when Santa Claus comes. On Christmas day we open our presents.

Adam Martin- Grade 2: I'm glad Jesus was born on Christmas Day. Christmas is joy and love. We share at Christmas.

Adelines to do bouquet of song

The Thunder Bay Adelines will be performing for your listening enjoyment a "Bouquet of Song" on Feb. 14 at the Community Auditorium in Thunder Bay. This will be presented to you under the direction of Mrs. Diane Crocker.

Two quartets will be featured: the 'Short-n-Sweet' and the guest quartet from Minneapolis, the 'Roadrunners'.

Tickets are now available through chorus members, but mainly at the box office at the auditorium.

For more information, please call Mrs. Jo Kulik at 577-5830.
