

A word from Keith Milne

Submitted by Pastor Keith Milne- Terrace Bay Gospel Assembly.

Christmas has become just an emotional experience for most people.

Our attempts to celebrate and experience a 'good' Christmas are futile.

We try desperately to strike the right chords in our sentimental heart but for so many- Christmas never measures up to our expectations.

Christmas is meant to assist us to become more spiritually attuned to the true significance of the historical birth of Jesus Christ.

We must recognize that with this historical event, God has intervened in the life of every person.

The birth, begins God's loving plan to offer completeness and wholeness to every person.

The emptiness that we vaguely sense can only be satisfied by a real, spiritual experience with the Christ.

Christmas was meant to be experienced and lived with spiritual depth, based on a relationship with the One who was born to die. My prayer is that everyone will be able to enjoy Christmas as it was meant to be.
