

Seminar for women

Tips, advice and methods of beginning a new business will be the focus of a 'starting a small business' seminar for women at the Terrace Bay Recreation Centre on March 25.

Sponsored by the Ontario Ministry of Industry, Trade and Technology, in co-operation with the Women Business Owners of Northwestern Ontario, the free evening starts at 7 p.m.

"Business Ownership for Women seminars are an excellent means of learning what it takes to get ahead," Industry, Trade and Technology Minister Hugh P. O'Neil said.

"Many women interested in starting a small business don't have the time or resources to discover on their own all they need to know. These seminars provide sound business start-up advice," added Rick Ferraro, small business advocate and parliamentary assistant to the minister.

The seminar will be presented by women consultants and business owners. Margo Purchase of the ministry's Small Business branch and Wayne McLellan of the local ministry office will be available to discuss individual questions immediately following the seminar.

The seminar will cover the essential elements of starting a small business including evaluating yourself and your idea, sources of financing, choosing the right location and relevant resource material.

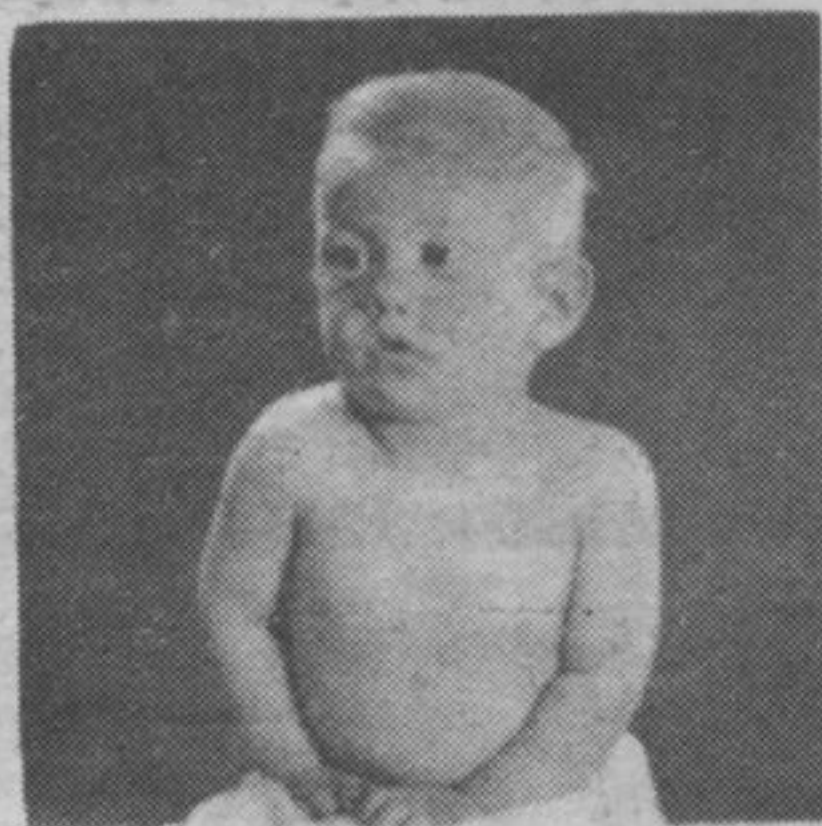

There is no charge for the seminar. But because space is limited, registration is mandatory.

To register or for further information about the Business Ownership For Women program, call the toll-free Ministry of Industry, Trade and Technology Small Business Hotline at 1-800-387-6142.

Bits and Bites

By Helene Ballard

Hi! Another week gone by, and spring is coming a wee bit closer every day.

It has been a quiet week here at Birchwood, however, on Tuesday the 10th our card players came to enjoy another afternoon with the residents- we thank these ladies for their time spent here. It makes the day a little brighter for us here.

On Wednesday the 11th, in the morning, we had a visit from the wee folks, the little children were so cute, they sang for us then passed out St. Patrick's Day cards they had made along with cookies (green) in the shape of a shamrock.

Then in the afternoon the other half of the Kindergarten class came. We all enjoyed the little ones, they talked to us about school and those who had pets were more than happy to tell us about them.

It was most interesting to see them. I would like to thank their teacher, Mrs. Holly Stortini, for her kindness and we hope they come again to visit us.

Our Activities' Director, Sylvie Angus, informed us that so far she has three volunteers to come to Birchwood- we thank them for their kindness and we hope to have more of you. You know it's a good feeling to give of one's self to help others.

And even if you can only give one or two hours a week that's fine, so let's have more phone calls.

Not too much news this week, but soon we will have more events which I'll tell you about.

In the meantime, I hope you all had a nice St. Patrick's Day and that those of you who went to the "St. Urho's Day Dance" had a good time.

And now this wee bit- Husband consoling his wife at their daughter's wedding- "Don't think of it as losing a daughter; think of it as gaining a bathroom." Cheerio.

Communities to receive grants

David Ramsay, parliamentary assistant to the Minister of Northern Development and Mines, announced on March 6 that the communities of Longlac, Geraldton, and Marathon will benefit from Capital Conservation Grants that will help with improvements to the towns' recreational facilities.

Longlac

A news release from the Ministry of Tourism and Recreation stated that the town of Longlac will receive $23,980 for improvements to the community centre.

These improvements will help the community to expand its programs offered at the centre.

Longlac will also receive $72,751 to build a new ball diamond.

This new diamond will be the second one for Longlac, which in recent years has experienced a sharp increase in softball activity.

The town of Geraldton will receive $15,750 to upgrade its community centre. Additional recreational opportunities will be created due to the grant.

The township of Marathon will improve its Municipal ball field with help from a $7,701 grant.

Grants of this nature ensure that these community facilities in Northwestern Ontario will be maintained and improved.
