Chimo Club Meeting

The April meeting of the Chimo Club was held on April 24 with 32 members present. Reports were given by the Secretary, Helen Jartus, and Treasurer Pat Guina, and approved as read.

Irene Borutski, on behalf of the Recreation Committee, spoke briefly to the members regarding a survey that they were doing on recreation, particularly as it concerned the Seniors, and asked them to return the prepared questionnaire.

Three members of the Chimo Executive had attended a meeting with the Roads Committee and the Town Council with regard to improving certain areas for safety: particularly the installation of a Crosswalk near Collingwood Court to Spadoni's corner, as this is a very dangerous area, particularly for the seniors.

Members will be participating in May in a walking or running Fitness programme, and counting their miles for the "Eldorobic Moonwalk". Everyone was encouraged to put on their walking shoes and go for a walk and turn in the miles for our score.

So far, 12 members had indicated they would be attending the Senior Games on June 8, 9 and 10 in Thunder Bay. Registrations are still available at the clubrooms.

Eva Gordon reported sending out Get Well Cards and a Sympathy Card. In hospital are Mr. and Mrs. Tom Borutski, and Mr. Jack Noonan in Ottawa Civic Hospital.

The Telethon for Cystic Fibrosis will be held in the Chimo Club on Sunday, May 10, with members of the Kinsmen Club also assisting. A list for drivers and assistants will be posted in the clubroom.

The May Bingo cards are on sale with a few left. Fred Harness will look after the Bingos during the summer during the absence of Pat Guina. April Bingo winners were: Mary Valentino, Freda Gerow, Betha Miller, Betty Tate, Margaret Harris, and Maybele Weberg.

Celebrating birthdays for April were: Mrs. Cataford, Bern Jacomb, Rena Ross and Frank Sechelsky.

Mr. Al Slater showed a film on Elmira, Ontario, called "Plain People" while the lunch was being prepared and enjoyed by all. Following lunch, members played games, pool, and shuffleboard. Winners of the shuffleboard were: 1st, Beth McAdam and Helen Jartus; 2nd, Marg Handel and Frank Sechelsky.

Next meeting will be on May 16.

C.W.L.

The regular monthly meeting of the Holy Angels C.W.L. was held on Sunday, April 5. Father Peter opened with prayer and Carmel gave an inspirational reading. Mary Gentile read the minutes and correspondence; Bernadette gave the treasurer's report. Spiritual life, Janet; Publicity, Jackie Comisso; Education, Georgette read the yearly report.

Thank-you to Sister Grexton for doing the inspirational and to Mrs. Molinski for doing the names in calligraphy.

Members are reminded of the convention to be held May 5, 6, and 7 at Terrace Bay.

Elections were held: past president, Georgette Cebrario, president for 1987-88; Teresa Stortini and Treasurer Jeanette Howard; Secretary, Janet Moorey.

Sheila Parent and her group provided a nice lunch. The hall was decorated in Easter motif. Bingo was played. A draw was held for a teddy bear cookie jar and was won by Joan Cardiff. The next meeting will be on the first Sunday in May.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Bourignon have returned from visiting relations in Birtle, Man.

Mrs. Betha Miller and Ethel and Neil Nesbitt and Mrs. Gillis have returned from a trip in Portarorta, Plata. dominica Republic.

Block Parents

The annual meeting of the Terrace Bay Block Parents will take place Wednesday, May 20, at 7:30 p.m. in the Curling Club Lounge.

At this meeting, the election of next year's executive and a review of our first year will take place.

All interested persons are urged to attend.
