

Oral Communications Festival held recently

As part of the Education Week program, the elementary schools of the Lake Superior Board of Education held their annual Oral Communication Festival on Tuesday, April 28.

This year's contest was hosted by Schreiber Public School.

There were 2 speakers chosen from each school to compete in each of the Junior (Gr. 4-6) and Intermediate (Gr. 7-8) divisions.

Sixteen speakers from Manitouwadge, Marathon, Terrace Bay and Schreiber Public Schools participated.

Competition was keen in the Junior Division as speeches were delivered on the topics of:

Ringette- Barb Roen, Schreiber P.S.

Food- Tiffany Rustan, Manitouwadge P.S.

Bubble Gum- Terri Hamilton, Marathon P.S.

Fairies- Michelle Gould, Manitouwadge P.S.

My Budgie- Linsey Mutch, Marathon P.S.

Raising Parents- Stacy Wallwin, Terrace Bay P.S.

Fish Story- Marshall Bagdon, Terrace Bay P.S.

Pollution- Jason Chapman, Schreiber P.S.

The winners in the Junior Division were Terri Hamilton (1st) and Linsey Mutch (2nd) of Marathon Public School. Marathon Public School also captured the divisional trophy for the Junior grades.

The Intermediate students took the podium next and their speeches covered a wide variety of topics:

Martin Luther King Jr.- Andrea Capy, Terrace Bay P.S.

Children of Divorce- Sheryl O'Reilly, Schreiber P.S.

Hockey- Jason Hales, Manitouwadge P.S.

Chauvinism- Joey Furlong, Marathon P.S.

Middle Child- Jennifer Gould, Terrace Bay P.S.

Helen Keller- Mitzie Murphy, Manitouwadge P.S.

Communication- Patti Quinton, Schreiber P.S.

The Media- Robert Morrison, Marathon P.S.

The winners of this division were Sheryl O'Reilly (1st) and Patti Quinton (2nd) of Schreiber Public School.

Judges for the Oral Communications Festival were Mr. Jack Stokes, Sr. Shirley Grexton, principal of Holy Angels S.S., and Fr. Bill Le Grand.

On behalf of the judges, Mr. Stokes commented on the fine quality of the speeches and said that they had not heard "a bad speech".

He commended all of the competitors and stressed the importance of being a good communicator in today's world.
