the parents' maw searching for food in its parents' internal regions.

They have a wing spread of about nine feet. Although a large bird, they are quite bouyant in the water. They fly with their head hunched back on the shoulders and the bill resting on their breasts. They fly in a flap rhythm.

Winners were Aaron MacKenzie, Tammy Noble, Erin Callaghan (absent), Chantal Hamilton, Megan Phillips, Karie Baldwin, Kevin Maenpaa, Kelly Renette, Amy Stachiw, Crystal McLean, Chris Smeltzer, Paula Doucet, D'Arcy Renette and Kim Callaghan (absent).

Going to the rodeo

The bike rodeo held during Police Week resulted in a tie between these two little guys, Luke Deschatelets, left, and Andrew MacKenze, right, in the pre-school category. The overall trophy winner between the two elementary schools was Terrace Bay Public School. (Photo by Ken Lusk).

At $49.50 per night for a family of four, my first choice is the Landmark Inn, Thunder Bay

I don't have a second choice

You don't have to spend an arm and a leg to enjoy the comforts of a four star hotel. The Landmark Inn, Thunder Bay offers the very best of both worlds. Two dining rooms, two lounges, a huge pool for the kids, complete with sauna and whirlpool and all at the affordable price of $49.50 per night for a family of four. And it doesn't end there.

FREE Continental Breakfast

That's right. For the four of us. It's a great way to get a good start on the day and it doesn't cost a penny.

Convenient Shopping
The Landmark Inn is located a stone's throw from County Fair Plaza, just across the parking lot. Two big chain stores, hair salons, boutiques and a giant Canadian Tire store and service centre are all right there. No need to drive all over town for essentials.

Total Relaxation

That's the main reason we always choose the Landmark Inn. The kids are in the pool, my husband's in the sauna and now if you'll excuse me, I'm going to get back to this terrific book.
