Approval to be sought for long-term committee plan

the Training Option. The late would determine what training needs exist in the community.

LONG-RANGE PLAN

Fels said that after the six-month discovery work period elapses, the next step would be receiving approval for a long-range or long term plan. This plan would allow the committee to actually start planning its strategy in order to realize its objectives determined from the discovery work.

Fels said during that time up to $1.5 million would be available to the committee for local investment. The Community Futures Board of Directors could actually administer loans she said.
