

Holy Angel

Holy Angels Principal Sister Grexton, above, told the News she is glad to be back at school for another year. Although enrolment is comparable to last year, she said there is a low number of students in Junior Kindergarten.

REUNION NOTICE:

Summer 2 years longer Students sort of glad to go back- want more summer

New staff
Holy Angels has a teaching staff of 10, including Grexton. New staff members are Miss S. Welbourne from Thunder Bay who is teaching Gr. 2; Mr. K. Asmussen from Schreiber who is teaching Grs. 3 & 4; and Mrs. J. Morris from Schreiber who is teaching Gr. 1.

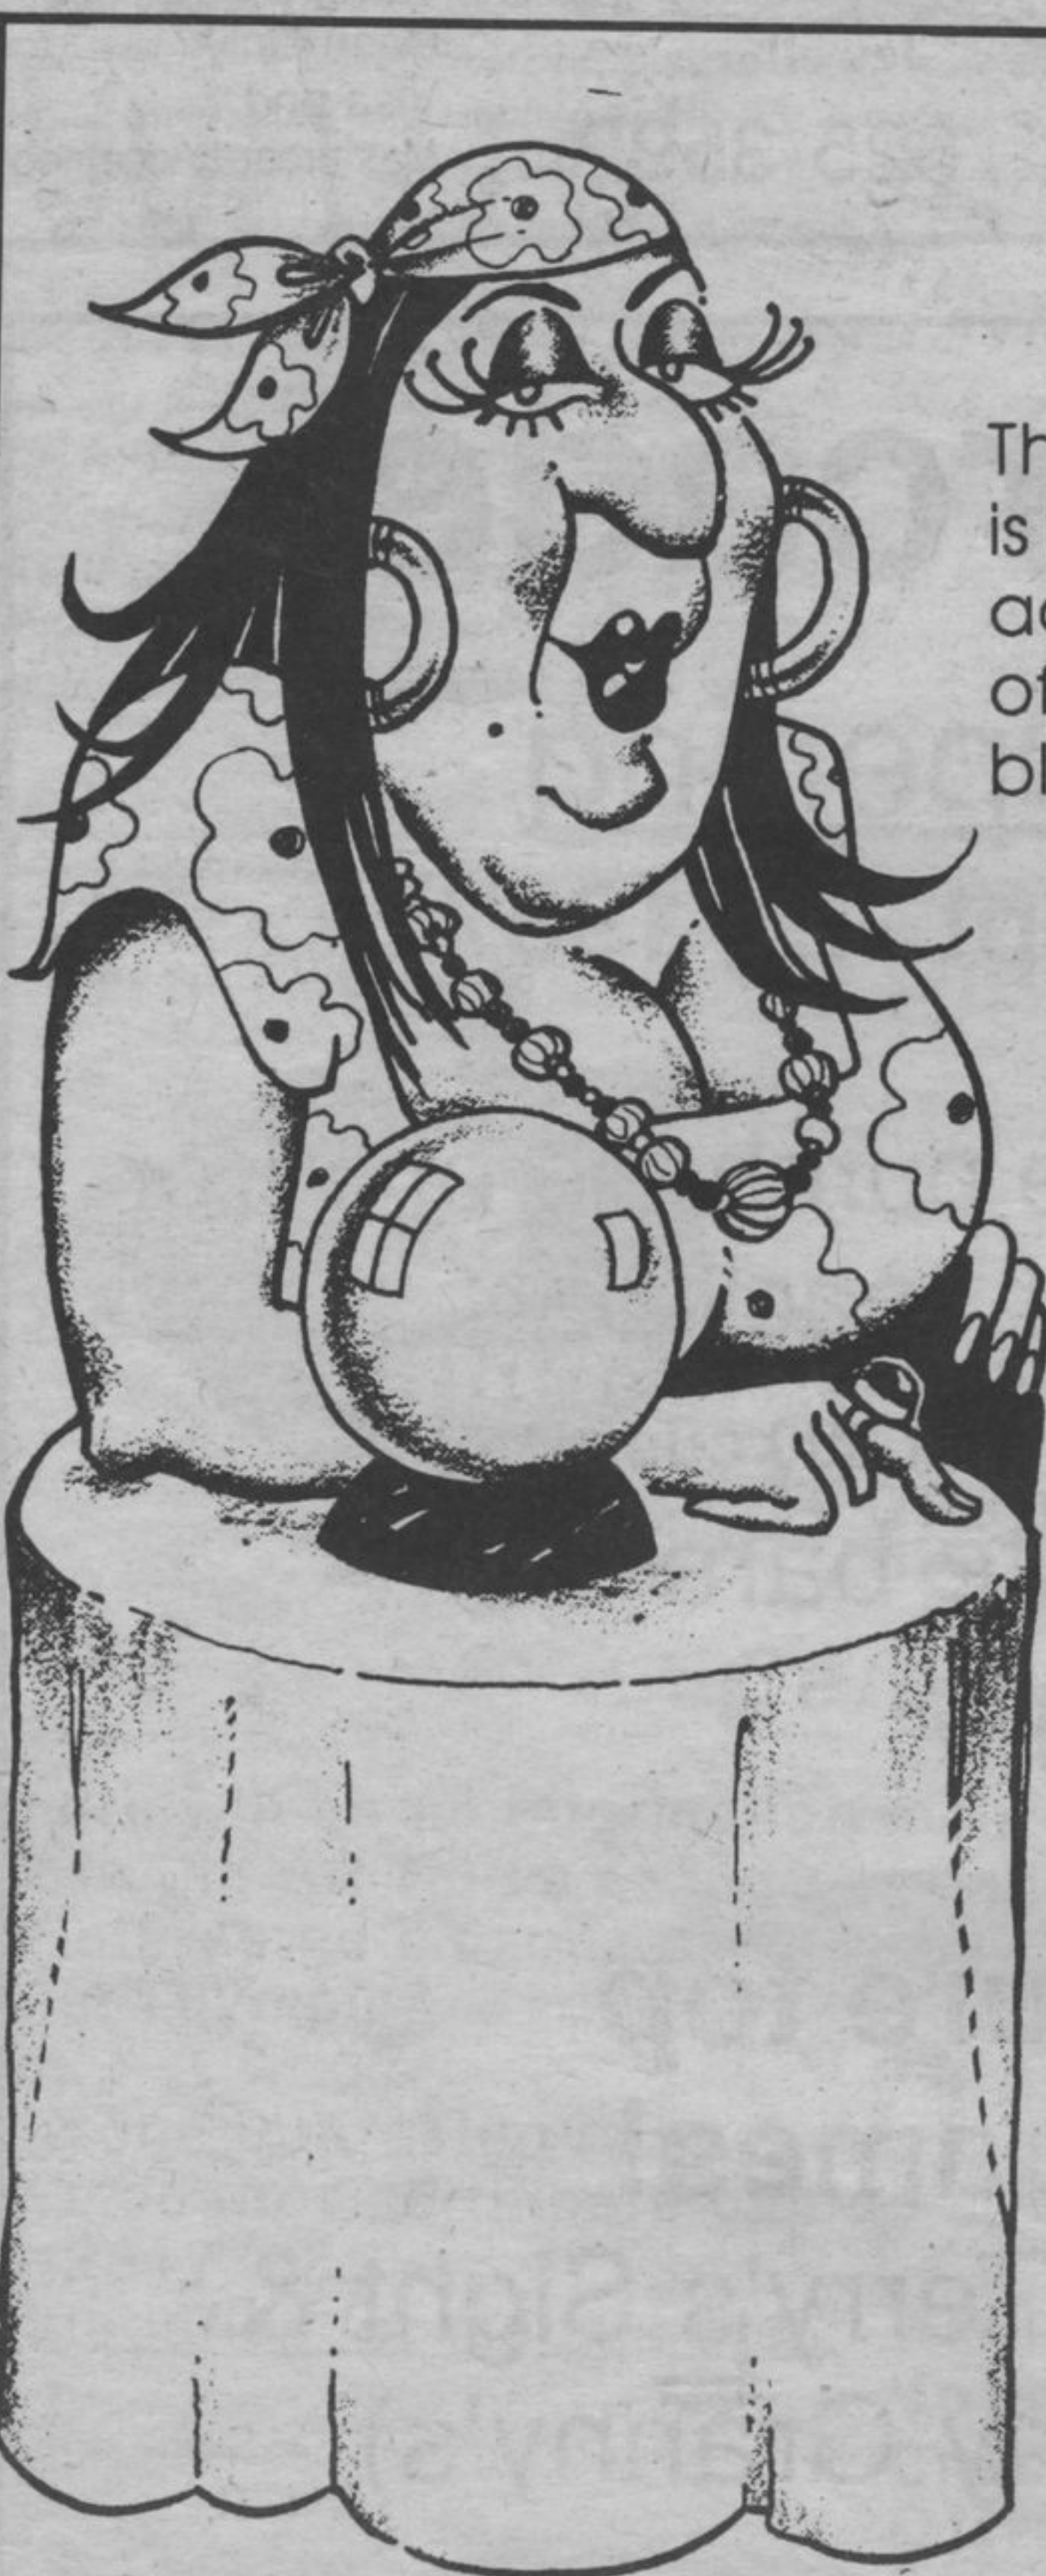

Summer longer
Whether or not the teachers are glad to back is irrelevant. The students the News talked to wish the summer was longer. Stanley Spadoni said, "No way"; he's not glad to be back. "I wish the summer was 10 months longer. I would stay on holidays." Jackie Glad said "I wish the summer was a little longer so I could play ringette on the streets." "I wish the summer was a little bit longer so I could play," said Janey Pellegrino. Her favourite class is gym. Jeremy Keating said he wished the summer was a couple of days longer. "I'd go fishing," he said. Michael Adey said he wished the summer was "two years longer". His favourite class is gym also.

Anne Todesco reviews old buildings in Rosspport

This is the Catholic Church in Rosspport. The original one burned down in 1924. It was built in 1881-82.

"I see a new job, lots of new friends and a new sense of purpose in your life"
