

C.W.L. bazaar is fast-approaching

The General Meeting of St. Martin of Tours C.W.L. was held Monday, September 14, in the parish hall with 25 members present.

Sharyn welcomed a new member.

The meeting opened with the League Prayer, followed by a decade of the Rosary to show more devotion to Mary, this being the Marian Year.

A Scripture reading was read by Marg.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read by Marilyn.

The treasurer's report was then given, followed by convenors' reports and correspondence.

Marg gave a report on the Liturgical Workshop she attended in Thunder Bay.

There are 128 members now; spoons were given to departing members.

On June 24, Marilyn presented Bibles to the Gr. 8 graduates from St. Martin School.

There was a good attendance at our booth at the Fall Fair.

Two emergency Resolutions were read and a motion made; after discussion they were then voted on.

The bazaar is fast-approaching and members are urged to have their knitting in to Peggy Helmink by Oct. 10.

The Regional Tour is in Marathon Sept. 29, with Mass at 7 p.m. at Holy Saviours Church. Members are urged to attend.

Anyone with items to be repaired or donated to the March of Dimes, Camelot St., can see Irene Kettle for more information.

There is to be a Fall Clothing Drive; watch the bulletin for details.

Pat MacKay has volunteered to look after the used stamps collected for the Missions.

Father Campbell gave a short talk, followed by the Prayer to the Holy Father.

After the meeting, Father Campbell and Marg gave an enlightening talk on their Pilgrimage to Medjugorje.

The Loris is my shepherd I shall not want,
It tells me when it's time to lie,
It leadeth me through the day,
As the hours go ticking by.
As I walk through the valley of Bob's,
I shall fear no closing time,
For I have the most accurate watch in the bar.
Anonymous birthday poem.

Stuart Riddell elected as delegate of Zone 28

Stuart Riddell, a member of the Manitouwadge Trappers' Council, has been elected as the delegate of Zone 28 to the Annual Meeting for election to the Board of Directors of the Ontario Trappers' Association, North Bay, Ontario.

Riddell has served one term as director.

This meeting was held at Russells' Landing (near Manitouwadge) on Saturday, September 12, 1987, at 2:30 p.m. as all Zone 28 trappers were advised.

The meeting was chaired by Roger Moffat of Kapuskasing.

As there was not an established quorum of 20 voting members, the meeting was postponed until 4 p.m.

There being no other nominations from the meeting, Stuart Riddell was duly-elected as the delegate of Zone 28.

This meeting was held in conjunction with the Manitouwadge Trappers' Fall Field Day of trapsetting competitions, for all members of the family and games followed by a Pig Roast Dinner. The weather co-operated.

Roger Moffat announced that there would be a Trappers' Workshop, Saturday, October 24, 1987, in Hornepayne, Ontario. All are welcome to attend.

Marlene Turner.

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

Do you know someone who deserves an award?

The Northern Ontario Business Awards of Excellence will recognize the achievements of successful business people in Northern Ontario and the contributions they are making to the growth and prosperity of the regional economy.

The Awards will be presented Tuesday, November 24, 1987 at the Northern Ontario Business Awards of Excellence dinner in Thunder Bay.

There are six awards:

Entrepreneur of the Year

An entrepreneur creates wealth by perceiving an opportunity, mobilizes his or her energies as well as others to realize the opportunity and takes risks in doing so. The nominee may have founded a business, purchased an old one, and turned it around, or diversified a business.

Young Entrepreneur of the Year

Young entrepreneurs will play a key role in the growth and prosperity of Northern Ontario. It is absolutely essential that as a community we encourage entrepreneurship and that we salute the achievements of our youth. Nominees for this award must be 30 years or younger on November 24, 1987.

Executive of the Year

Nominees must hold the title of chairman, president, owner, or serve as an executive officer of a business operating in Northern Ontario. Nominees must possess the qualities of leadership and ingenuity and have a record of success in business.

Company of the Year (1-25 employees)

Nominees must have demonstrated excellence in sales growth, product development, technological innovation, productivity improvement, profitability, job creation, environmental enhancement, labour management relations, safety, or quality of product or service. Nominees must have a permanent physical presence in Northern Ontario.

Company of the Year (26 to 50 employees)

Company of the Year (51 plus employees)

To nominate an individual or company for the Northern Ontario Business Awards of Excellence, please fill out the nomination form which has been inserted into this issue of Northern Ontario Business. If it is missing call us immediately or contact your local Chamber of Commerce.
