

Residents of unorganized area still upset over board's taxes

The topic of the Lake Superior Board of Education's tax increase came up for discussion again at the Nov. 9th Terrace Bay Council meeting.

Clerk-Treasurer Administrator (CTA) Dave Fulton told council that the residents are upset by the whole process.

George Ramsay (now reeve) made the point that none of this money was levied by the township; it is all school board taxes.

Fulton said the main complaint is that there was an increase without representation.

He said the four township clerks (Terrace Bay, Schreiber, Marathon and Manitowadge) were not stepping out of their jurisdiction by attaching the unorganized areas to the municipalities for the purpose of the tax levy.

"We knew this was coming," said Ramsay, "to bring Manitowadge down to fairness..."

"And bring Schreiber up," added Counc. Houston. (The Township of Manitowadge was initially upset by the board's original levy and that is why the four clerks got together for a re-apportionment).

"The attached people got caught in the squeeze," Houston said. He added the board, sensibly, wanted to attach Hemlo, and therefore, had to attach everyone else.

"That is partly so," commented CTA Fulton. "Rosspart and Jackfish already had to pay before Hemlo (was included)," he said.

The four clerks arbitrated the settlement which shifted a large amount to the unorganized areas, Fulton said.

Council noted there is an Ontario regulation that attaches these areas to the nearest municipality for school board purposes.

It gives council and the clerks the responsibility to represent the interests of the said territories and residents and property owners there.

A petition has been sent to the Ministry of Education that asks to revoke this regulation and to investigate other methods.

"It concerns me they (the residents) were stung once," said Counc. Houston.

"The ball is in the ministry's court to come up with a way to represent the unorganized areas," concluded Fulton.

Rioux appointed
"He is eager to sit and to help the community," said Counc. Bill

Houston of Benny Rioux's appointment to the Board of Directors for the North Shore Family Resource Centre.

"I'm thrilled to death," Houston
