Horticultural Society

On Wednesday, November 25, 1987, the Terrace Bay Horticultural Society held its Annual General Meeting.

The evening began with a demonstration by Eleanor Gould of a Christmas centerpiece with candle.

All materials used are available in Terrace Bay so that we would not have difficulty in obtaining the supplies to do our own decorations.

She also showed us various other decorations to give us ideas and inspiration to create our own unique arrangements.

At the end of the demonstrations the centerpiece was drawn as one of the door prizes and was won by Hyacinthe Landry, who thanked Eleanor for coming and sharing her expertise with us.

We then held our annual meeting and the following officers were elected: Hyacinthe Landry, president; Terese Landry, 1st vice-president; Ken Randle, 2nd vice-president; Elaine Mannisto, secretary; with Kim Ten Hoeve continuing as our treasurer.

Our directors are Peter Monks, Shirley

Rippengal, Ken Randle, June Jeffrey, Jeanne Randle, Anne Smrke, Taina Baker, Daphne Monks, Sandra Stojko and Lise Roy.

The president reported on the year's activities which included our public planting in the town, attendance at the District #14 Annual General Meeting in Nipigon and participation in the Fall Fair- we were delighted to win a plaque for the best decorated stall.

In addition, we have planted bulbs outside the town offices and the bank for a spring display.

We will be running our annual Christmas 'bulb' display competition during December.

A flyer inviting everyone to participate will be put in all the mailboxes very shortly. Please support us and maybe win one of the prizes of cash which could be used to beautify your summer garden.

The evening closed with the drawing of the two remaining door prizes which were won by Lise Roy and Daphne Monks.
