MARY KAY COSMETICS

CATHY RILEY

Cathy joined Mary Kay Cosmetics in October of 1979 and has been working diligently at it since. She enjoys the idea of being independent and working on her own, setting her own hours. There is a demand for skin care cosmetics around the area and she has customers as far away as British Columbia, the territory being open. In keeping with her work, she attends a convention regularly held in Toronto each year and there are mini seminars held in Thunder Bay. These seminars are vital to her in order to gain product knowledge and skills so she may apply them to her business. She is a native of Schreiber and the mother of two children. She is also a member of the Choir at Holy Angels Church and the Catholic Women's League. For relaxation and enjoyment she cross country skis. She credits her family as well with helping her in her business as they free up time for her.

THE STRAWBERRY PATCH

Darlene and her mother June started their business 3 years ago in February 1985. Darlene was born in Red Rock and moved to Terrace Bay 8 years ago. They decided to go into business because there was no availability of knitting and craft supplies. Their biggest seller is the wool and patterns that are in demand. They also offer craft courses which are very popular. The store hours are Monday-Saturday from 9:00 to 5:30 and you can call them at 825-3333. Darlene and June are always busy thinking up new and creative ideas that they can present in their store. Darlene is presently vice president of the Aguasabon Chamber of Commerce and is enrolled in a small business course sponsored by Northwest Enterprises in Marathon.
