

Schreiber rep on sport advisory board

The Northwestern Ontario Sports Advisory Council (NWOR-SAC) would like to announce the addition of Steve Kosowick, Terry Scott and Ron Larivee to the Board of Directors and Julie Kyle as the Regional Sport Project Officer.

Steve Kosowick is chairman of the Fort Frances Recreation Committee and a board member of the Ontario Municipal Recreation Association.

Steve is also very active in many sport disciplines, especially in curling where he is a participant as well as the vice-president of the Fort Frances curling club.

Terry Scott is a Supervisor of Community Recreation with the City Of Thunder Bay and has direct responsibilities for the development of sport and sport organizations in Thunder Bay. Terry was instrumental in initiating the development of the Northwestern Senior Games and has been involved in many capacities with different youth sports throughout Ontario.

Ron Larivee is the Recreation Coordinator with the Schreiber

Parks and Recreation department. He has been involved in hockey, slow pitch, fastball and broomball in the capacities of both participant and official. His professional involvement in sports administration in the Northwest will be of assistance to the council for the development of sport in the region.

Julie Kyle is a recent graduate of the Physical Education program at Lakehead University. She is actively involved as a coach and official in gymnastics at a regional and provincial level.

As the Regional Sport Project Officer, it will be her role to fulfill the council's goals of enhancing and promoting sport development in Northwestern Ontario.

The council attempts to accomplish this goal through the administration of various programs such as National Coaching Certification Program, the Training Institute for Sport Administrators and the Regional Athlete Assistance Program.

The council also offers consultative services to regional and community sport groups; acts as an advocate to deal with provincial and federal sport governing bodies; and advises the Ministry of Tourism and recreation on sport-related issues both in a proactive and reactive manner.

Should you be interested in utilizing the many services provided by the Sports Council, call Julie Kyle in Thunder Bay at 475-1325, or 1-800-465-5018.

Conference to address rehabilitation issues

On May 13, 14, and 15, the Thunder Bay and District Injured Workers' Support Group will be hosting a provincial conference on The Rehabilitation of the Injured Worker.

The Conference will take place at the Ramada Inn/Prince Arthur Hotel.

Wolfgang Zimmerman from the Disabled Forestry Workers of British Columbia will be showing the film which they produced.

It is entitled "Every Twelve Seconds," and it deals with safety in the work place as well as the rehabilitation process from the experiences of five injured workers. Every twelve seconds, someone in Canada is injured on the job.

A wide variety of workshops that touch on Rehabilitation will be presented. Some titles are:

Pain and Stress Management; New Policy on Pension Supplements; Organization of Injured Workers Groups and the Effect of WCAT on Injured Workers.

A panel discussion will be held to address the questions: Can an injured worker return to work?

How can injured workers, employers, the WCB and labour organizations work together to make sure this becomes a possibility?

Our guest speaker will be MPP Floyd Laughren. He will be talking about Private Disability Insurance.

Registration deadline is May 1. For more information, please call or write Sandra Brown, Conference Coordinator, 212 Wolseley St., Thunder Bay, Ont., P7A 3G7, or phone 807-344-1057.

Beddard Memorial Bonspiel a success again this year

The Jim Beddard Memorial Bonspiel was a great success again this year. 16 mixed teams competed for trophies and prizes.

The team of George Caron, Jenny Robson, Richard Flanagan and Eleanor Pollard won the Bonspiel after a close final game against Jane Santerre, Gene Woods, Aldea Churney and Ron Brend.

In fact, the game was tied, and because of time the skips drew to the button to decide the winner.

Also making the semi-finals were the following teams: Lloyd Dejonghe, Anne Regis, Paul Wenzel and Tammy Gosselin; and Howie Cooke, Raoul Fournier, Emil Hamann and Mary Clare Papineau.

The doorprize was won by Frank Hurley.

Mary Clare Kennedy was voted Best Bonspieler, with Jane Santerre a close second.

A Special thanks to all those who helped make this Bonspiel a success — especially The Royal Canadian Legion, and Lil and Evelyn from the Ladies Auxiliary. See you all next year!
