Terrace Bay

The exhibit "Portraits of the North" from Thunder Bay Museum is currently on display at the Terrace Bay Public Library. Come in and see the photography of Robert Flaherty (1884-1951), which captures the faces and culture of the Inuit people and the ruggedness of the North during the early 1900's.

The library will begin summer hours on June 15 and will be closed on Saturdays after this date. Our weekday hours remain the same.

A fine amnesty period will be offered this month to people with overdue books. If you return your overdue books before June 30, there will be no fine charged. A list of all overdue books can be found at the library. We have many new books for your reading enjoyment now and throughout the summer.

Some popular titles are: Icarus Agenda, Robert Ludlum; Lightning, Dean Koontz; Mortal Fear, Robin Cook; Zoya, Danielle Steel; Rock Star, Jackie Collins; Winter hawk, Craig Thomas; Feather on the moon, Phyllis Whitney; Trump: the art of the deal; Moonwalker, Micheal Jackson; Controlling cholesterol, Kenneth H. Cooper; Enchantment and Sorrow, Gabrielle Roy.

Schreiber

June 11 has been chosen as the date for the second annual yard sale. Weather permitting, it will be held on the lawn and sidewalk at the entrance to the library. This event will take place between noon and 4.00 pm. A fish pond will be held in conjunction with the yard sale.

'Weeding' is now being done throughout the library, so there should be a good selection of discarded books for sale.

The public can purchase a table for $5.00. It's a good way to sell items discarded while spring housecleaning.

The summer reading programme material has arrived. The theme is 'Dinosaurs.' This will be the theme of the summer story hour.

The Library plans to participate in the July 1 activities being conducted by the Schreiber recreation Association. Ideas have not been finalized for this yet; however, the public will be kept informed.

A book exchange will take place early in June. The exchanges are completed twice a year through the Ontario Library Service in Thunder Bay.

The Schreiber Library will be closed on Sundays for the months of June, July, and August.
