

Chip shot on 18th hole provides exciting end to Hanley Memorial

By Mike Reid
Special to the News

Bert Andreola chipped in a birdie shot on the 18th hole to win the Bill Hanley Memorial Golf Tournament held August 20 and 21. His score of 146 bettered those of the other 121 entrants, but it was close.

Spectators were treated to an exciting finish; Andreola won the Open by one stroke. Mrs. M. Hanley presented him with the trophy.

Joe Tees shot a 130 low net to win the Joey Campbell trophy, which was presented by Bob Campbell.

Harold Gellert won the 'closest to the hole' contest and won a colour television after his ball stopped 24 inches from the second hole. Joe King presented the t.v. on behalf of G. Figliomeni and Sons who donated it.
