By Rev. Bob Elkin

With summer almost gone, the Schreiber Teen Talk group celebrated its passing with a "Back to School Hop" at the Schreiber Recreation Centre.

About 40 dedicated young dancers turned out to party their way out of summer and into fall.

It was the latest event in a busy schedule run by the Schreiber group. Dances, a hike, a hobby night, and a barbeque supper and pool party have all been attended by those involved in Teen Talk.

The approximate 30 members of Teen Talk, who are between 10 and 13 years of age, began meeting six months ago. The group meets monthly to plan and carry out events and activities.

This Friday, Sept. 9, the group will meet in the Anglican church hall for supper and an all-night Movie-rama.

On Sept. 23 they will hold another dance at the Schreiber Public School. It is a busy time for an active group!
