Broomball players

Anyone interested in playing Broomball this year may contact Rick Smeltzer at 825-9255, or the Recreation office at 825-3542.

Adult skating

This is a new addition to the arena schedule this year. Adult

Public Skating is scheduled for Sundays from 8.00 to 9.00 p.m.

Come out, learn to relax and have some fun with other adults — 18 years of age and older.

Skate-athon

The Figure Skating, Minor Hockey and Ringette Clubs will be cosponsoring this event, which will be held in the arena on Sat., Oct 29 from 9.00 a.m. to 5.00 p.m.

The Skate-athon is open to those of all ages. Because it is Hallowe'en weekend, why not get into the spirit and paint your face. No full costumes allowed!

This is the last reminder that you must drop your completed registration forms into the box at the recreation office by Oct. 26. For more information, call 825-9258 or 825-9450.

Schreiber Rec notes

Recreation Theft

The Recreation Complex has recently experienced some difficulty with equipment disappearing. A tape player and VCR have been stolen.

These pieces of equipment are not covered by insurance and are vital to a number of programs. Theft of this type of equipment only serves to increase the costs of programs and taxes.

If anyone has any information regarding the disappearance of this equipment, he/she is asked to contact the Schreiber O.P.P. at 824-2333, or the recreation office at 824-2317. Your name need not be mentioned and your anonymity will be guaranteed.

Aerobics

Registrations for the second session of this program, scheduled to begin Nov. 8, are now being accepted at the recreation office.

Part-time office work

The Recreation Department is looking for someone who is willing to do fill-in work at the office on short notice.

We cannot offer guaranteed hours, as it would only be to cover for holidays and sick-time. If you are interested, please contact the Recreation Office at 824-2317.
