FREE TRADE AND THE TRAVELLER

The Free Trade Agreement will gradually eliminate customs duty between Canada and the United States.

Some things change:

■ The duty on some Free Trade goods will be eliminated immediately while the duty on other goods will be phased out in stages.

■ Only goods which are of U.S. or Canadian origin will be eligible for lower Free Trade Agreement duty rates.

■ The goods must have been acquired in the U.S. and must have no mark or label indicating the goods were produced in any country other than the U.S. or Canada.

Some things don't:

■ Current personal exemption levels do not change.

■ Restrictions on the duty and tax free amounts of alcohol and tobacco remain in effect.

■ Free Trade goods exceeding personal exemption levels remain subject to federal sales and excise taxes as applicable.

■ Before your next trip, we'll be glad to tell you the duty payable on the goods you intend to bring home. We're here to help, that's something that will never change!
