

SCORE magazine comes to television

SCORE MAGAZINE's president, Kim Locke, and general manager, Randy McDonald, have recently announced the premiere of the publication's half-hour television show, "SCORE'S GOLF WORLD."

The magazine-format program, modelled after SCORE, Canada's only national golf publication, will begin a 10-week run on the Global Television Network beginning Saturday, January 21, at 5:30 p.m.

SCORE'S GOLF WORLD will be hosted by Global's Mark Habscher and Hall of Fame golfer Sandra Post. SCORE

MAGAZINE's editors, John Gordon, Lorne Rubenstein and Bob Weeks, will serve as field reporters. Programs will include such items as the Canadian Airlines Top 10, a look at Canada's 10 best golf courses, interviews with some of the game's top players, instruction (with SCORE's instruction editor Ben Kern), news and weekly travel segment.

SCORE MAGAZINE is published seven times a year by Canadian Controlled Media Communications in association with Laurentian Publishing Group.

Next concert Feb. 5

Acclaimed recording artist, concert performer and musical virtuoso, Harpist Joanna Jordan will be performing with the master of the flute, Ian Hawkins Sunday, February 5 at the Terrace Bay High School auditorium as part of the Terrace Bay Entertainment Series.

The unique blend of these two talents is called CLASS, coming from the combination of Classical and Jazz.

The duo performs such works as Glenn Miller's "In the Mood", Bach's Sonata's, a Mozart Concerto, or Vivaldi's "Spring".

They also perform such musical scores from the Rolling Stones, the Doors, and Van Morrison and Miles Davis.

This musical duo has been building and playing a repertoire of music and caters to just about every taste and they have been playing in the widest imaginable range of venues.

When Jordan performed at the Royal York's Gazebo and Imperial Room, rock star Tina Turner would often come in and compliment her on her music.

When the pair played the national anthems at a Cleveland Indians, Toronto Blue Jays baseball game, Hawkins said he felt compelled to carry the huge, and very awkward, 85 pound harp up to the pitcher's mound.

"I wasn't going to let people see Joanna doing it, because the last time that happened we were playing live on the news program on Global TV, and the announcer made me feel ashamed that I let her do it," Hawkins joked.

When in Terrace Bay, the duo will attend a reception afterwards where the public is welcome.
