

Community profile

By Dave Chmara

This week's community profile focuses on one of Terrace Bay's newest residents, Paul Paradis.

Paul is the manager of the Superior North Business Development Centre and started at this position January 19.

Originally from Thunder Bay, Paradis decided to apply for the position because, as he puts it, "I like working with small business people."

Paradis worked at his own consulting firm in Thunder Bay for the past 11 years, as well as working for larger accounting and consulting firms during that time.

He said he liked his work when he first started in Thunder Bay because he was dealing with smaller businesses at the time.

But as time passed, he was assigned to audit larger firms.

"You go in and work at a place for two months doing an audit but don't get to know anybody," he said.

He added that going over countless figures and endless piles of paper for that amount of time was not as rewarding as dealing with small business people face to face.

Paradis attended Lakehead

University in Thunder Bay and graduated with an honors degree in business.

He lived in Toronto for four years and said, "It's a great place to live when your young and single. There's something to do every night. But when you're older and have a family it's so expensive." He also said the thought of driving for two hours just to get to work every day does not appeal to him.

Paradis is married and has two children, a boy and a girl aged eight and five respectively.

He and his wife didn't want to disrupt their children's school year so they will join him here in Terrace Bay after the school year ends.

He said his son likes the A & W here and all the facilities surrounding it.

So far, Paradis finds Terrace Bay and Schreiber to be, "clean, neat towns. I find all the people to be really friendly."

Paradis said the town has a lot to offer in terms of recreation facilities. He is currently in the process of looking for a home to move into permanently.

Currently, he is spending three days a week in Thunder Bay and the other four here in town.

As for the Business Development Centre, Paradis said, "we have an open door policy. We're here to help people with loans and consulting and don't charge for the consulting services."

He added the Business Development Centre is there to help people in planning a small business and if they can't help then they will put people in touch with those government departments or services that can.

Paul said he and his wife are both involved in the community, with the Canadian Cancer Society and other such organizations.

He mentioned his wife was responsible for starting a neighborhood watch program in his neighborhood in Thunder Bay.

He did say they both plan to continue to be involved in the local community here.

Welcome to town Paul.

In Winnipeg in 1925 you could buy a complete 12-room Dutch Colonial style timber house in kit form for $1,939. The kit included all timber cut to fit, windows, doors, glass, paint, hardware, nails, roofing and comprehensive instructions and plans. The freight was paid in full to any railway station in Canada.

Winnie's Notes

The regular U.C.W. meeting was held February 1st with Ruth Hiller presiding. Marlene Doig read the minutes of the last meeting and Gwen Hadley gave the Treasurer's report.

The World's Day of Prayer will be held March 3 at St. John's Anglican Church.

For the next three meetings, members are asked to bring an article for the Penny Auction to be held for the Birchwood residents in May.

A Mother's Day Tea will be held Saturday, May 13 from 2 to 4 p.m. at the United Church.

It was Mr. and Mrs. A. Gilmour who had taken the trip to Las Vegas, and not Isilmour as reported in the Feb. 1 issue of The News.
