Canada Post Corporation

Rural Report Card #1

In early 1988, Canada Post Corporation made several commitments to our rural customers. We promised more convenience, more outlets, more business for local merchants and more efficient services.

Canada Post Corporation is delivering on all of these promises and more.

Since our program to improve service began, Canada Post Corporation has:

Increased convenience by more than doubling the average hours of postal service in communities where these services are provided through retail postal outlets operated by local businesses.

Increased the number of postal outlets by opening more than 180 new retail postal outlets in rural communities to complement the services offered by a corporate post office, and 10 new postal outlets in communities where no postal outlet existed.

Increased business for local merchants by converting retail postal services from a corporate outlet to local businesses in more than 240 communities, giving merchants the benefits of increased customer traffic.

Increased the efficiency of our service by allowing local merchants to retail postal products and services. This enables Canada Post Corporation to concentrate on efficient pick-up, processing and delivery of the mail.

AND MORE

Free lockbox service. Customers who depend on lockboxes as their primary means of delivery will no longer have to pay a lockbox service fee.

Local delivery and community postal identity have been maintained in every community where the mail system has been changed.

Meeting customers' delivery needs by installing additional lockboxes in retail postal outlets, building community mail centres in convenient locations and expanding rural route delivery.

*Canada Post is in rural Canada to stay.
That's a promise.*
