Car insurance a rip-off

By Dave Chmara

Last week, the provincial government of David Peterson did away with the Ontario Automobile Insurance Board's recommendations which called for the elimination of basing insurance on age, sex, marital status.

Instead, insurance rate increases have been capped at a maximum of 7.6 per cent until the end of this year.

Lake Nipigon M.P.P. Gilles Pouliot said, "this shows the need for a publicly run insurance system."

Pouliot called the auto insurance industry a "big mess" and said, "7.6 per cent is less than the Ontario Automobile Insurance Board called for but it's still too much. It's above the rate of inflation and it's a rip off."

Commenting on the publicly run insurance systems now in place in Manitoba, Saskatchewan, and British Columbia, Pouliot said, "Whenever the government has changed in these provinces they have left the public insurance system in place. This (type of insurance system) works for the people at a much cheaper rate."

Pouliot said the idea of changing the auto insurance system in Ontario was controversial and that's why the government had the Ontario Automobile Insurance Board come up with the new rating system instead of forming one themselves.

Pouliot said the present system is unfair as many insurance companies are picking and choosing who they will insure and in the North the choice of insurance companies is limited.

Fish limits change

Sport fishing seasons and catch limits on Lake Superior were reviewed in 1987/88 by the Ministry of Natural Resources.

Recommended changes were then reviewed by the public at a series of open houses. Following analysis of response, five (5) alterations to the regulations were submitted to the Minister for approval. These have been approved and become effective immediately.

The changes are being made to enhance management efforts that are currently underway to protect and rehabilitate the high quality of Lake Superior sport fisheries, including lake trout, brook trout and walleye.

"There is a strong public support for protection of stocks during the spawning period and anglers support reduced limits while rehabilitation efforts are underway" said George McCormack, Assistant Deputy Minister for Northern Ontario.

"Close to 200 people responded to the survey which was held around the lake from Thunder Bay to Sault Ste. Marie. Their input was essential to the review process," he said.

The new regulatory items are:
1. The walleye and sauger season on Lake Superior (Division 23) will be the same as the inland season - open January 1st to April 14th and May 20th (3rd Saturday to December 31st.

2. The lower reaches of 4 major tributaries, namely the Montre Magpie, Michipicoten, Goulet River (Division 18), will have delayed spring opening for walleye and sauger - open season January 1st to April 15th and June 1st to December 31st.

3. Walleye and sauger will have a catch and possession limit of 3 on Lake Superior (Division 23), except for Nipigon Bay which is presently closed to walleye and sauger angling (the Nipigon River is included in the closure).

4. The new open season for lake trout on Lake Superior (Division 23) is January 1st to September 30th and December 31st.

5. Brook trout is to be included with lake trout in an aggregate limit of 3 for Lake Superior (Division 23) in 1990. In 19 the brook trout limit will be (separate from lake trout). In 1990 the full alteration to the combination limit will be in effect (total limit for brook trout and lake trout to be 3).

These new regulatory items will be listed in a Fact Sheet at licence issuers and District Offices, as well as in the Lake Superior Sport Fish Newsletter.
