

Canada Day events

The Canada Day Committee has been meeting on a regular basis in order to provide the citizens of Terrace Bay with a 5 day, fun-filled celebration of our nation's birthday.

Celebrations will kick-off the evening of Wednesday, June 28th, and continue on through to Monday, July 3rd.

Events tentatively scheduled thus far for children are a bike rodeo, swim pool events, a free movie, bike contest, kiddie carnival and more. Our youths can enjoy a Much Music Teen Dance and Triathlon event while adults may want to participate in an open golf tournament, beer gardens and of course the annual July 1st Dance.

Fun for the whole family can be had at the Chamber of Commerce's Sidewalk Sale, the committee's parade, pancake breakfast and of course the annual beach bonfire and spectacular fireworks display. Seniors Day is tentatively scheduled for Monday, July 3rd when a horseshoe pitch, B-B-Que, and bridge and cribbage tournament will be held.

Something for everyone is being planned during this action packed long weekend. So watch for further details as they develop and plan to celebrate Canada's Birthday right here in Terrace Bay. You'll be glad you did.
