

Election of officers at next R.C.L. Ladies Auxiliary meeting

The regular meeting of the R.C.L. Ladies Auxiliary, Br. #223 was held on October 30, presided by S. Love with 18 members present.

Shirley welcomed our District Commander R. Beda and her friend Mary from Thunder Bay, as well as Skip Davis, president of the Schreiber Ladies Auxiliary Group.

Minutes were read and approved. Correspondence consisted of two thank you letters, and a notice relating to Per Capita fees, deadline to be Jan. 31, 1990.

Publicity reports advertising for the Tea and Bazaar has been made through the use of posters, Terrace Bay/Schreiber News and local T.V. Sick and Visiting reported sending one get-well card.

A discussion took place regarding catering for the New Year's Eve Dance. Christmas gift exchange among the members will take place at the November meeting. Members are asked to bring cookies at this meeting.

Nominations and election of officers for the coming year will be held after the meeting.

For Remembrance Day, the flag bearers at the Parade were Stella Gusul and Yvonne Mallais, and Lillian Belliveau layed the wreath.

The ladies sold poppies by the stores and at the Tea.

There was a discussion on our donation to the Branch at the supper. As Shirley was away, the first president, A. Hart presented the cheque to the Branch President on Saturday, Nov. 11.

Rose Beda spoke on Scholarships and the by-laws of the organization.

The Regional Meeting will be held in Schreiber on March 4, 1990.

Pot of Gold was won by S. Love.

The ladies of the R.C.L. Auxiliary wish to thank all who donated and worked at the Tea and Bazaar, which was held on Nov. 4

Special thanks to Robinson's and the donors of the following prizes with the winners as follows:

- Quilt - Teresa Stortini
- Hostess Chair donated by S. Gusul - S. Black
- Submarine sandwich donated by Terrace Bay Bakery won by

N. Chopty.

- Cherry Cake donated by K. McLeod won by B. St. Louis
- Black Forest Cake donated by L. Burns won by S. Black
- Cooler donated by Costa's won by Mrs. McLellan.
- Glasses donated by R. Dakin won by D. Bolduc.

Schreibers first annual Crafts 'N Stuff Sale was a huge success as experienced by anybody trying to find parking that afternoon. Many local craft people displayed their wares at over 40 tables, many of them having a Christmas theme, were on hand for shoppers. Photo by Dave Chmara

Northern Developments

By Maurice Fenelon

Northern Development Officer The Independent Learning Centre (ILC) is one of Canada's largest educational facilities.

A part of the Ontario Ministry of Education, ILC provides a free home study program for Ontario residents who wish to earn high school diploma credits, upgrade basic skills or study for enjoyment.

Those eligible to enroll in ILC courses include: adults, students under 16, students attending day school and Ontario residents temporarily living outside Ontario.

Those applying to take courses as adults must be over the age of 16 and be a Canadian citizen, or landed immigrant or Ontario resident holding working visas, diplomatic visas or ministerial permit. In addition, those applying as adult students must not be currently enrolled as full-time day students in a day school.

ILC courses may be available to Ontario residents of compulsory school age who are unable to attend school for three months or more for any of the following reasons: extended illness, an isolated location in Ontario, or temporary residence outside Canada.

A full-time day school student must fulfill all the following requirements to be eligible to enroll in an ILC course. He or she must; have completed 14 credits before applying; be unable to take the course at school; and have the signed approval of the ILC day school facilitator.

Ontario residents who are residing temporarily outside the province may be considered for enrollment in ILC courses. A complete and up-to-date school record is required.

ILC students may take one course, several courses or acquire an Ontario Secondary School Diploma (OSSD) or Secondary School Honor Graduation Diploma (OSSHGD).
