

Hefty fines for speeders

Toronto -- Ontario Transportation Minister William Wrye yesterday introduced amendments to the Highway Traffic Act which dramatically increase the fines for speeding infractions.

These changes reflect our new, tough approach to drivers who deliberately endanger the lives of others by exceeding the posted speed limits," Wrye said. "Now they will have to pay the price for their recklessness."

"The new fines will restore the deterrent factor, which had been eroded by 20 years of inflation since the last increase."

Wrye said the higher fines will also support the Ontario Motorist Protection Plan, a package which is intended to reduce the human and economic costs of traffic accidents in this province.

The proposed schedule will see fines triple at the top end -- bringing the cost of a ticket for driving 60 km over the speed limit to $585. Under the existing schedule, the fine would be $125. A conviction for 15 km over the limit would cost $45, up from $18.75.

The current and amended schedules are as follows:

Existing speeding fine schedule

1 - 19 km/h over	- $1.25
20 - 39 km/h over	- $1.75
40 - 59 km/h over	- $2.50

60 or more km/h over	-- $3.25	20 - 34 km/h over	- $4.50
km/h		km/h
Proposed speeding fine schedule		35 - 49 km/h over	- $7.00
		km/h
1 - 19 km/h over	- $3.00	50 or more km/h over	- $9.75
km/h		km/h.
