

Pet Talk

Take responsibility for newborn kittens

By Alice Scott

Before I start the lesson for "sit, stay" I'd like to talk about the latest arrival at our home. We now have a 2 week old kitten in our care.

From what I can gather, by way of the neighborhood children, this kitten has passed along through many households.

cloth around the anus three or four times a day.

After four weeks, the kittens should be able to care for themselves.

Enfalac is a better supplement feeding formula than regular milk. Make 3 oz. of formula at a time, warm the milk before feeding.

This is an example of what happens when animals are not spayed or neutered.

These kittens should never have been born. If you have the responsibility for a litter of kittens wait at least until they are 5 to 6 weeks before placing them in a home. A pregnant cat is your responsibility, not your neighbors.

Teaching your dog to sit is usually the easiest lesson. Place your right hand in back of the collar and use your left hand to tuck the back legs down. Action must accompany the word "sit."

For the first week stay beside your dog. Your dog should be worked in your left side. Once he has comprehended the command

"sit", then "stay" can be brought into the command.

Three signals are used: voice, hand, and right foot.

Hand in front of the dog's muzzle, step off on the right foot accompanied by command "stay." Turn and face your dog. Your left hand should be palm up with the lead in it.

Only keep your dog in a sit, stay for 10 seconds, then return to your dog. Use a release word such as "OK". This will let the dog know it is all right to move. Always use the same command words.

Anyone who has one of these kittens should feed them with an eye dropper, syringe, or premature baby bottle.

They have not been weaned and do not have the ability to relieve themselves. This can be done by you. All you need to do is gently rub a warm, moist face

Northstars win 'AA' Finals

By Angie Saunders

The Midget District AA Finals took place on March 23-25 leaving Schreiber the champions.

The three other teams competing against the Schreiber Northstars were: Red Lake- West Division, Thunder Bay- Central Division, and Filane's Fallen Rock- East Division.

Schreiber showed how hockey is really played at the championships, winning every game played.

In the first game against Filane's Fallen Rock Schreiber beat the team with a score of 11-1.

Red Lake was next to be overcome by Schreiber who won with a 6-3 score.

Thunder Bay lost 7-5 in the third game against Schreiber.

The final game of the championship between Schreiber and Red Lake led our boys to their final victory with a score of 7-5. Goals were scored by: Jamie Speer-3, Mike Speziale- 1, Joey Figliomeni-1, David Figliomeni-1, and Dale Wilson-1.

The Schreiber Northstar Midgets were also very successful throughout the whole hockey year. They won the Wawa Midget Tournament, CKPR Tournament in Thunder Bay, and a tournament in Deerwood, Minnesota. The Northstars also won the North Shore Midget Zone and The Eastern Zone against Filane's Fallen Rock.
