

Terrace Bay Bowling News

By Shelley Long

Another bowling season has ended and with great accomplishments to speak of.

Terrace Bay has been well represented this year.

Tom, in the Executive (Hiram Walkers) Bowl. Debbie Papineau went on to North Bay.

Then from the Classifieds Tom Long, Debbie Papineau and Vivian Heinrich went on to Sudbury for the Provincials. Tom returned with a second place silver medal for high triple.

Correction- In the April 24th issue of the News, the Lifeline picture on the front page was to read: Ellaine Crowwell, President of Beta Sigma Phi, presented a cheque to Elaine Mannisto for the purchase of a Lifeline unit. Apologies to both Ellaine and Elaine.

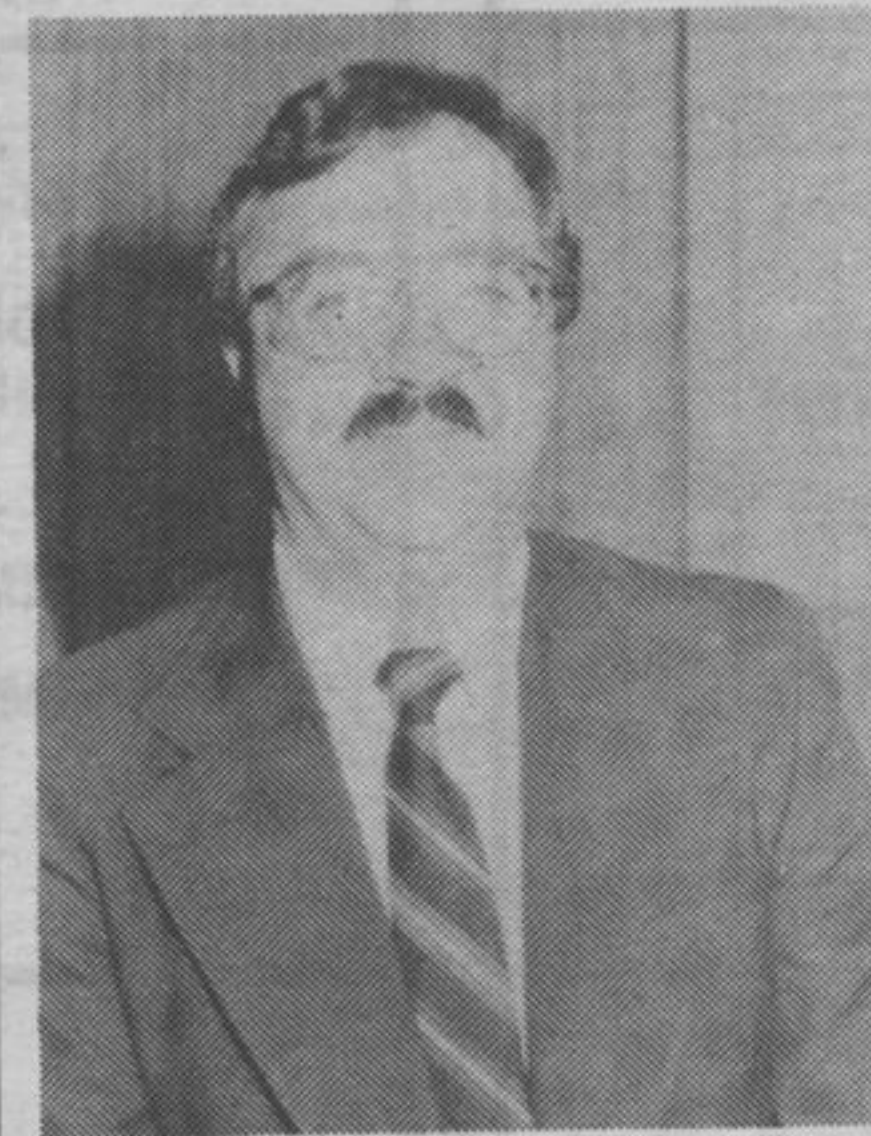

Crime Stoppers

Patrick Dingwell, President of Schreiber / Terrace Bay Crime-stoppers and Constable Bert Logan of the Schreiber OPP presented Mr. Joe Figliomeni of G. Figliomeni & Sons with a plaque in appreciation for their generous donation.

THANK YOU

I would like to thank everyone for attending my come and go shower. Thank you to those who made sandwiches and squares and to those who contributed to the lists in Western Tire, Cebrario's, Sapdoni's and the Northern Store. Also, thanks to those who worked in the kitchen, the servers, the gift openers and Andi, for sitting at the guest book. A very special thanks to Theresa for all her hard work in making it a success. It is greatly appreciated.

You're a good man, Charlie Brown

The musical "You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown", takes to the stage of Lake Superior High School on May 4, 5, & 6.

Based on the characters of the "Peanuts" comic strip, the show features such rollicking tunes as "Suppertime", "Happiness is...", and the title song, "You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown".

Produced by Noel Chambers and directed by Kim and Howard Alexander, the shows display the talents of Suzanne Thibault as the irrepressible "Lucy", Jeff Mikus as the junior philosopher "Linus", Sean McKay as the musical prodigy "Schroeder", Stacey Jewell as the tomboy/airhead "Peppermint Patty", Sal Filane as everybody's favorite beagle "Snoopy", and Kelie Turpin as "Charlie Brown".

The show, which has been in rehearsal since the beginning of February, is the first musical to be presented by LSHS in many years.

Thirty students and seventeen staff members are involved in the production of this musical.

The show times are: May 4 at 8:00 p.m. - Terrace Bay campus, May 5 at 8:00 p.m. - Terrace Bay campus, May 6 at 2:00 p.m. at Schreiber campus.
