Winnie's Scribbles

By Winnie Campbell

Rev. Joseph M. Cano celebrated the Golden Jubilee (50 years) of his ordination to the priesthood May 16 to 20th. Father Cano was the pastor of Holy Angels Parish in Schreiber from August 1959 to February 1971.

All his family were present for the celebrations including brothers John, Tony, and Cyril of Thunder Bay, Michael of Ottawa, Benny of Sault Ste. Marie, Stan of Terrace Bay as well as his sister Margie of Saginaw, Michigan. The celebrations began with a concelebrated Mass at Avila Centre May 16th followed by a dinner.

The next event was a banquet

Friday, May 18th where Father Cano was given various presentations including an Apostolic blessing from the Pope, greeting from the Federal and Provincial Governments, Knights of Columbus 3rd and 4th Degree and the City of Thunder Bay. The latter award was presented to him by his brother John who had been appointed Acting Mayor for the evening.

The final event of the celebrations was a Golden Jubilee Mass held at his present parish of Holy Family in Rosslyn followed by an Open House. Many former parishioners from the parish where he served were on hand for the various events.
