Rubber Boot Tournament

By Angie Saunders
 A Mixed Rubber Boot Tournament was held in Schreiber over the July long weekend. The players were out in their finest rubber boots to run the bases backwards. Outfielders hung onto ropes attached to fences while the girls from the other team were at bat.

The winners in the "A" Division were the Pistols who came back to beat the B-52's- 10 to 6.

The B-52's had a 6-0 lead in the first inning of the final game of the tournament. But the Pistols came back and took over the lead when a single from Randy Burton brought Steve Morrison home from second base. The B-52's never regained the lead.

The "B" division between the Texaco Stars and Catch 22. Texaco won with a 5-4 score over Catch 22.

The Silver Bullets downed the Neon Knights 3-2 in the "C" Division.

Carolyn's Critique

By Carolyn Williams
THE FABULOUS BAKER BOYS

Starring: Beau Bridges, Michelle Pfeiffer, Jeff Bridges.

This movie is the true definition of the word "sleeper." It crawls along at a snail's pace, with little action to relieve the monotony. There are very subtle twists of humour though, and that helps, but you really have to watch for them.

If I had seen this movie on T.V., I would have turned it away at the first commercial break. I did rent it though, so I stayed with it to the bitter end. And I do mean bitter.

The characters slowly seep into your mind. Even though you don't particularly like any of them, you are curious to know what happens to them. The end is coming; the characters are fighting; someone walks away from someone else. Do they get back together? Are they happy? Is life okay? Don't ask me. This movie ends without answering a single question and I honestly shouted, "I that it?"

If you want a movie that you can use instead of warm milk and a bedtime story, this is it. Insomniacs--this is for you.

I give The Fabulous Bakker Boys a 1-1/2.
