

Schreiber Library News Carolyn's Critique

Due to the resignation of Board Chairman Barbara McLaughlin, the board welcomed a new trustee in Bob Elkin. Pam McKeever is now the Chairman of the Board.

The summer hours have been in effect since June 1st, and will extend to August 31st. The library is closed Sunday afternoons.

The theme for summer story hour is 'Backpack your Paperback' and will commence July 10th. Sessions for 6 to 10 year olds will be held Tuesdays and Saturdays from 2:00 to 3:00 p.m., and for 3 to 5 year olds Thursdays from 2:00 to 3:00 p.m. There is a limited registration for each group of 15, so come in early to register your child.

Anna Maria Commisso has been hired under the Summer Employment Experience Development program for a period of six weeks. Her duties will include co-ordinating and running the summer story-hour sessions.

Pam McKeever presented the library award to Jamie Elkin at the Schreiber Public School graduation. Teresa Stortini presented the award at the Holy Angel's graduation to Cindy Alfarano and Deanna Cosgrove. Bob Elkin made the presentation at the Lake Superior High School graduation to Cathy Cornfield. Congratulations to these students.

Assistant Librarian Louise Stefurak and Librarian Teresa Stortini completed a book exchange at the Ontario Library Service in Thunder Bay recently. The new books are now on the shelf.

1991 marks the 100th anniversary of the Schreiber Public Library, and the board is exploring ideas to celebrate this milestone.

The board wishes to thank the Ministry of Culture and Communications for a recent grant of $291.00, which enabled the librarian to attend the Ontario Library Association conference in Hamilton in November 1989.

Some of the new books ready for circulation are:

Adult Fiction
Three Blind Mice - Ed McBain; The Burden of Proof - Scott Turow; Lie to Me - David Martin; Seconds - Lois Wyse;

The Second Son of Heaven - C. Lee; The Innocent - Ian McEwan; Sullivan's Sting - Lawrence Sanders; Into the Darkness - Barbara Michaels; Dayworld Breakup - Philip Jose Farmer.

"Tango and Cash"- Starring: Sylvester Stallone, Kurt Russell, Jack Palance, and Teri Hatcher Rated "R".

A fast-paced, action packed, cops and crooks movie. Very entertaining with something for everyone. If you like fabulous weaponry- it's got it; if you like witty repartee and camaraderie- it's got it; and ladies, if you'd like to see two male superstars taking a shower in the buff- well it's got that too.

Stallone and Russell portray Tango and Cash respectively, two very different cops who've been giving the bad guys a major headache. Jack Palance is the head baddie who figures he's found a pill for his headache.

He sets our boys up for murder of a Fed. He greases enough palms that they end up being convicted and sent to jail. Is it the minimum security country club they expect to go to? Not on your life. They get sent to a maximum prison and are put in general population- certain death for ex-cops.

Does Palance stop here? Is he satisfied they'll suffer enough? No. He uses his money and influence to inflict great pain and humiliation on them.

With a little help from a friend, good luck, and their own cunning, they plan an escape. Do they make it? Do they get even with Palance? There's only one way to find out.

I totally enjoyed this movie. There is quite a lot of violence though, so parents- check it out before letting youngsters view it. I give Tango and Cash a 9.

"Back to the Future II" Starring Michael J. Fox, Christopher Lloyd, and Lea Thompson. Rated "PG".

This move is so confusing that if I tried to explain it, I'd use a whole page. There are so many flashbacks and flashforwards flying around, you can't take your eyes off the T.V. for a second.

To add to the confusion, everyone is playing his father or mother, sister or brother, grandparents and grandkids, you almost need a scorecard to keep track of where you are.

Despite all this, the movie is enjoyable and if you plan on seeing Part III, you'd better see this first. You also get a sneak preview of scenes from Part III at the end of Part II.

This film is appropriate for all ages. I give Back to the Future I a 6 1/2.
