Winnie's Scribbles

Beth Macadam is three quarters of a century of old so her Schreiber friends decided it was time she had a birthday party.

It was held in the United Church hall on Saturday Oct. 13. It was a complete surprise to Beth.

She was greeted with Happy Birthday to You in song when she entered the hall where between fifty and sixty people were assembled around tables decorated with floral centre pieces.

Jack Handel designed an appropriate sign which was autographed by all attending the party.

Eva Gordon, on behalf of Beth's friends, presented a card and a gift of money.

Beth also opened individual gifts and cards and responded fittingly.

A delicious lunch was served by Eva Gordon, Cecile Bedard, Flora Bryson, Margaret Nesbitt, Margaret Handel, Myra Holmes and Skip Davis.

A beautiful decorated cake graced the head table which was cut and served by Beth.

A miscellaneous come and go shower was held in the United Church Hall for Miss Cathy Campell, bride elect of November 3.

Receiving at the door with Cathy was Brenda Cambell, mother of the bride, Simone Singleton, grandmother of the groom and Kathleen Wowchuk, maid of honor.

The guest book was attended by Amanda Mineau and Tracy Bryson. The gift table was attended by Betty Ann McKenna.

Pouring coffee and tea was Helen LeBlanc, Annette Campbell, Linda Bryson and Diane Maenpaa. Kitchen help included Mavis Godin, Helen Neilon, Theresa Jefferson, Majorie Prebushewski and Carol Anne Marshall.

Servers were Tama Gramatowski, Marlene McParland, Michelle Campell, Lisa Ray and Leigh Ann Cambell. Many attended and lovely gifts were received.

Cathy gave her thanks to all who helped.

The C.W.L. meeting was held on Sunday evening with a good turnout along with visitors Mrs. J. Carniate, Diocesan president, Continued on page 12.
