Violence against women the issue

The Company of Sirens will be addressing the issue of violence against women when it presents the play "Whenever I Feel Afraid" in Marathon, Friday Nov. 23

The play consists of stories, songs and skits with themes that emphasize the fact that wife assault is not a private matter and that it is a crime whether it happens on the street or not.

Admission and transportation are free.

It is estimated that one in ten women are physically abused by their partners. However there are many bruises that are never seen. There are sexual and psychological forms of abuse as well.

The Northshore Family Resource Centre, Ontario Women's Directorate, plus community donations are sponsoring this play.

The Centre provides temporary and safe shelter for women and their children who are victims of domestic violence. There is an Outreach office in Schreiber. Hours are 9:00 - 5p.m., Tues., Wed. and Thur. For further information call: 1-800-465-3307, or 824-3380.

D'ARCY: Mrs. Helen D'Arcy (nee Rosie) a lifetime resident of Schreiber passed away unexpectedly at her residence on November 7, 1990. Helen's home, the great outdoors, her pets and her charitable actions kept her a vibrant integral part of the community for more than 50 years. Her generosity was renowned and will continue to be remembered through grants bequeathed to several local and national charities. She is survived by a sister Katherine Murray of Toronto and was predeceased by her husband William since September of 1984 as well as brothers Don and Ed Rosie and sisters Mabel Rosie, Dorothy Plummer and Elsie Jewel. A major part of Helen's life revolved around her Church, St. Andrew's United in Schreiber, where a Funeral Service was held on November 9, 1990 at 2 p.m. Cremation followed. King Funeral Home Schreiber was in care of arrangements.
