New Council on mining, metallurgy & environment

London, October 11, 1990 - A number of leading companies engaged in mining and metallurgy met yesterday in London, England, to initiate the formation of an international council that will deal with matters related to health and the environment.

The main objective of the new council will be to develop industry positions and to promote the safe production, use, recycling and disposal of metals.

An interim organizing committee was established following the successful initial meeting in London. Over the next few months, the committee will develop the council's structure and action plan for its future activities.
