McCausland Hospital Auxiliary member receives Life Membership

Norma Crockford of Terrace Bay has been awarded life membership by the Hospital Auxiliary Association of Ontario (HAAO).
She was given a pin and a certificate to mark this accomplishment.

A Life Membership is given to those who have, over the years, made an overall contribution to their hospital auxiliary.

Crockford, a charter member of the McCausland Hospital Auxiliary, has held all of the offices of the organization.

She is the chief knitter of the bootees the the auxiliary presents to new mothers.

"I should have kept track of all the bootees I've knit over the years," she said.

She also mans the Auxiliary's Gift Shop at the Hospital once a week.

Crockford attended the 1990 HAAO conference in Toronto to receive her award.

She was of 65 people to receive a Life Membership from the association. There are 221 Hospital Auxiliaries in Ontario.

Northern Insights

sor never learns your name?
Where you really are just a number, instead of a person, like you are on a smaller campus? Distressingly, the report adds that the negative message about northern post-secondary education just doesn't come from the young people themselves. It's also perpetrated by their high school guidance counsellors. That's something that can be changed, one would hope.

But on the larger problem of northern Ontario's "loser image", it will take more than just seminars for high school guidance counsellors to turn that one around. I am optimistic. In the nearly two decades that I've lived in northern Saskatchewan, the Northwest Territories, or northern Ontario, I've sensed a growing pride among northerners that we not only like who we are and where we live, but that those grinding out their lives on expressways in the south have nothing on us.
We have fewer problems with crime, housing, and smog - not to mention traffic. We adults seem have to sold ourselves on the advantages of being a northerner. Now all we have to do is convince our kids.
